Watching 'Fugitive' something like watching New York Mets blame. The Mets don't need writers, but unfortunately 'The Fugitive' does. This is not to demean all its scripters, because often enough the possibilities of the stories are decent.

Red leaders face trouble over crops

NEW YORK (UPI)—A student of agriculture behind the Iron Curtain reported today that Communist leaders face severe internal discontent unless they make a wholehearted effort to bolster crop production.

Richard Judy, a member of the faculty of the Air Force Institute of Technology who studied in a report published by the Foreign Policy Association (FPA) that agriculture in Russia and most of her satellites and in Red China is in deep trouble.

—Or they can undertake "radical measures" to raise production. Judy studied at the Russian Research Center of Harvard University and Moscow University's Faculty of Economics and traveled extensively through the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe.

Filing seeks intervention

SALEM (UPI)—A motion to intervene in the case of the Department of Fish and Game of California versus the Federal Power Commission was filed in the ninth U.S. Court of Appeals, Atty. Gen Robert Y. Thornton said today.

Case continued by prosecution

KLAMATH FALLS (UPI)—The prosecution continued its case today in the first degree murder trial of Archie Foster, 26, Salem.

Glass-house dwellers should take it easy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—As far as Rep. John Dent, D-Pa., is concerned, glass house-dwellers should go easy on stone-throwing.
