Mexican border dispute settled

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson Friday signed a treaty with Mexico settling the long-standing Chamizal border dispute involving land at El Paso, Tex.

Johnson in signing the formal ratification of the treaty recently approved by the Senate, said the agreement demonstrated "that old and distasteful problems can be solved when men of honor try and see each other's viewpoint."

Johnson, a Texan himself, signed the document in the treaty room on the second floor of the White House.

The agreement provides for the transfer of 437 acres of American territory to Mexico and an accompanying transfer of over 200 Mexican acres to this country.

Dispute over the land along the Rio Grande River constituted, according to Johnson, a "thorn in the side of our relations with Mexico for nearly a century."

Johnson expressed the hope that the Chamizal treaty would be a model for settlement for further problems in this hemisphere and the rest of the world "with similar tolerance and trust."

9-pound girl born to Sophia

MADRID (UPI) — Princess Sophia of Greece, wife of Prince Juan Carlos of Spain, son of the pretender to the Spanish throne, gave birth to a nine-pound girl Friday.

The new princess, described as "healthy," is considered by monarchists third in line to the empty Spanish throne, after her grandfather, Don Juan of Bourbon, and her father, Prince Juan Carlos.

The newest member of the two royal families was born in a delivery room at Our Lady of Lereito Hospital, less than two miles from the home of her parents.

Police mounted a special guard inside and around the hospital immediately, keeping newsmen and curious spectators from entering the building. A Spanish police source said three Greek secret servicemen were in the hospital. There were 11 armed Spanish police officers on duty outside.

Unpremeditated murder ruled against Negroes

EVREUX, France (UPI)—A U.S. Army court martial Friday found two Negro American soldiers guilty of the unpremeditated murder of a white U.S. airman in a barracks brawl here Sept. 6.

A third defendant—a white soldier—was convicted of the lesser charge of involuntary manslaughter in the same case.

The court then retired to consider sentences in the case arising from the death of Airman I.C. Robert Padgett, 23, Woodlawn, Va., who died in a hospital shortly after the fight.

The two Negro defendants are Pvt. Richard L. Parker Jr., Eckman, W. Va., and Pfc. Edward Spears, New York. They faced a maximum penalty of life imprisonment.

The white defendant was Pfc. Allen L. Gernard, New York. Three years is the maximum penalty for involuntary manslaughter.

The military court was composed of six whites and two Negroes.

U.S. officials have denied French press reports that the brawl was the culmination of racial hostility between white and Negro servicemen and have attributed the fight to traditional interservice rivalry.

The defendants claim the fight broke out after some airman shouted racial insults at them.

A total of six soldiers were charged with Padgett's murder. Pfc. Raymond Bost Jr., Pittsburgh, and Pfc. Robert Burrell, of Philadelphia, both Negroes, were convicted by an all-white court Nov. 9 and sentenced to 15 and 12 years, respectively, at hard labor in Leavenworth federal prison.

A sixth defendant, Negro soldier Franklin D. Waddell, 18, Philadelphia, faces trial later.

The prosecution charges that the defendants entered the Air Force barracks and launched an unprovoked attack with steel bunk supports, killing Padgett and injuring other airmen.

Heider guilty on two counts

PORTLAND (UPI)—Sheridan businessman Otto W. Heider Sr. was found guilty on two counts of income tax evasion Friday in federal court here.

Judge Gus J. Solomon also pronounced Heider's confidential secretary, Irene E. Lawrence, guilty of aiding and abetting him in preparing false returns for 1953 and 1954.

Heider, a former lawyer who was disbarred in 1959, and his secretary were allowed to remain free without bond.

The two-count indictment charged Heider with claiming a net loss of $92,937.05 in 1953 and carrying the loss forward to wipe out an $18,467.82 gain reported in 1954.
