Outmoded fort system scrapped

SAIGON, South Viet Nam, (UPI)—Government troops are abandoning an outmoded system of forts in the Mekong Delta in the face of mounting Communist pressure, it was learned today.

The Delta, Viet Nam's rice bowl and main source of income, is also one of the heaviest areas of Communist penetration. It lies south of Saigon, between the capital and the South China seacoast.

The last remaining symbols of central government authority for thousands of Vietnamese peasants are now being erased as the small detachments of government troops in the old mud-walled forts are marched away.

The withdrawing troops pull down the yellow and red striped government flags from the watchtowers where soldiers have guarded roads and canals and villages in the five southernmost provinces making up the defense area of the Vietnamese 21st division.

The price in blood has become too great to hold the forts. At one time, the spike-studded moats and mud walls could hold back the badly armed guerrillas.

But now, even barbed wire and minefields surrounding the fort do not offer enough protection against the mortars and other weapons of the Viet Cong.

Since the military junta seized power last month, its officers have been reevaluating the government's tactics in the war against the Communists. The decision to pull out of the old forts was a result of that study.

Mao receives birthday note from Nikita

MOSCOW (UPI)—Premier Nikita Khrushchev told Mao Tse Tung that the Soviet Communist Party is "tirelessly striving" for Communist unity in a birthday message to the Chinese leader published in Pravda today.

Publication of the three-paragraph message on the Soviet Party organ's front page was the latest example of Khrushchev's "turning the other cheek" to Peking's personal insults, according to western observers.

But these analysts said the wording of the 70th anniversary message was noticeably cool, and the reference to Soviet strivings for unity implicitly suggested that the Chinese party under Mao was the cause of the widening gap.

Also absent from the congratulations was a personal wish from Khrushchev.

The message, signed by the Soviet leader and dated Dec. 25, was sent in the name of the Soviet Party Central Committee.
