Georgiev gets death sentence in Bulgaria

VIENNA (UPI)—A Communist court in Sofia today sentenced to death former Bulgarian diplomat Ivan-Assen Georgiev for allegedly spying on behalf of the United States, according to the Bulgarian news agency BTA.

BTA called the verdict "final and without right of appeal." It said the Bulgarian Supreme Court decreed Georgiev should die by firing squad. Previous Communist agency reports from Sofia indi-cated the former diplomat in effect had invited the death penalty for his crimes, which he was supposed to have committed to pay for mistresses on both sides of the Iron Curtain.

Georgiev, 56, went on trial for treason on Thursday. BTA had reported previously that he made a full confession the first day and said that Monday state prosecutor Ivan Vachkov de-manded the death penalty for him.

Western observers had pre-dicted he would get the death

Radio Sophia, in broadcasts monitored here, said Vachkov called Georgiev "a traitor to the homeland, a spy of the American intelligence." Even the former diplomat's defense counsel was quoted as say-ing his guilt was "irrefutable." But the defense asked the court not to give Georgiev the "heaviest penalty." In Bulgaria execution usually is by firing

BTA said the handsome dip-lomat, former No. 2 man in the Bulgarian delegation to the United Nations, testified he turned over military, economic and political information to agents of the U.S. Central In-telligence agency during a sev-en year period.

Vachkov claimed Georgiev advacnov claimed Georgiev admitted the CIA spent more than $200,000 "on him and his paramours." Communist news agencies have quoted him as saying the CIA supplied him with Parisian and Bulgarian mistresses while he worked in New York while he worked in New York.

American officials have branded the proceedings a "show trial." A few Western newsmen in Sofia attended the rial but they were barred on several occasions on the ground that state secrets would be discussed.
