

MR. AND MRS. BOB D. REBENSTORF

Baer-Rebenstorf marriage vows exchanged on Dec. 28

Miss Barbara Ann Baer and Bob D. Rebenstorf were married Saturday afternoon, December 28, at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Bend. The newlyweds made a honeymoon trip to Sun Valley, Idaho, and are now at home in Menlo Park, Calif., at 863 Partridge.

The bride is the daughter of William J. Baer, 974 Riverside Drive, and the late Mrs. Baer. A teller at Bank of America in Palo Alto, she attended Bend High School, Marylhurst College and Willamette University.

Rebenstorf is a teacher at Menlo - Atherton High School in Menlo Park, a graduate of Chico State in California, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Teel, Oroville, Calif.

The Rev. Stephen Murtagh performed the ceremony, in which rings were exchanged. Mrs. Robert Patton was soloist and Dallas Quick was organist. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

Miss Janis Baer was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Dennis Berrigan, Bend; Miss Betty Toy, Portland, and sisters-in-law, Mrs. Gottlieb Baer, Woodland, Calif., and Mrs. W. J. Baer Jr., Bend.

Bruno Baer, Bend, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Richard Eglinton and Peter Raventos, both of Menlo Park, and James Canfield and Wendell Lundberg, both of Chico.

At the reception in the Pilot Butte Inn Gold Room, Mrs. Vernon Smith and Mrs. Dan P. Cadey cut the wedding cake. Pourers were Mrs. Richard Stokes, Portland, and Mrs. Carol Evans, Mountain View, Calif.

Miss Barbara Rankin, in charge of group travel, is very familiar with our area because she said she came over here to ski when she attended college in Oregon.

Some of the things we saw on the tour were acres of pineapples growing, spectacular Nuanu Pali with its breath taking view of Lanikai, Kailua, Kaneohe, banana and papaya plantations, Trader Hall's or House of Coral—fascinating storehouses of Polynesian curios, picturesque Waimea Bay, Schofield Barracks—one of the largest military posts in the world, Pearl Harbor shoreline drive, Honolulu Harbor and Aloha Tower and one of the high-lights—the Mormon Temple—built in 1919 on the ruins of an ancient Hawaiian Temple and its beauty has often been compared to the Taj Mahal. Palm trees and flowers on the grounds landscaped to a gardener's delight!

Our stop for lunch was at the Crouching Lion, a beautiful place with much atmosphere, overlooking the ocean. It used to be a doctor's home and has been converted into this restaurant and what a massive rustic interior and the largest fireplace I have ever seen and food and service superb.

We want to thank all of you for your comments on our articles and so glad you have enjoyed them. In this way, we feel we can share our travels with you until you can take a trip wherever short or long or wherever and whenever it may be.

We had a smooth flight home and Northwest did a beautiful job. Many passengers slept and the time went so fast they didn't realize it was time to wake up and get off at Portland. That 720 B Fan Jet is wonderful.

VALE (UPI)— Circuit Judge Jeff Dorroh Jr. continued until Jan. 20 a first-degree murder case against a Salem father of 10 who is accused of burning his wife to death.

Judge Dorroh Friday set the date for any pleas or motions on behalf of the suspect, Wolford Keith Harris, 39, after a brief arraignment.

Harris, represented in court by Attorney Martin P. Gallagher of Ontario, was remanded to custody of the Malheur County sheriff without bail.

A grand jury early Thursday indicted Harris, a former Mormon bishop at Salem, on the murder charge, alleging the fiery death of his wife, Vera, 37, was "deliberate and premeditated malice."

Mrs. Harris was found dead following a supposed automobile accident Dec. 16 near Jordan Valley in which the Harris car was engulfed by flames.

At the time, Harris said the car had gone out of control when he fell asleep at the wheel and had plunged down a 260-foot slope. He said he was thrown from the auto and knocked out. When he regained consciousness the car was afire and the heat too intense for him to rescue his wife, he explained.

Dist. Atty. John Hutchins put the case before the Malheur County grand jury after receiving an autopsy report from a Boise, Idaho, pathologist. Hutchins has declined to discuss evidence gathered against the suspect.

Harris was arrested at his Salem home Thursday.

Chamber board approves budget for new year

A budget including expenditures of $26,684 during 1964 was approved Friday noon by directors of the Bend Chamber of Commerce.

Action on the proposal was unanimous after presentation of the budget by Maurice Shelton, Chamber treasurer.

Major items in the budget include: general promotion, $1,000; retail merchants' committee, $3,000; tourist promotion, $1,500; convention committee, $500; industrial committee, $500; agriculture committee, $50, and Roads and highway committee, $50.

In connection with the budget, it was reported at the meeting that for the first time in years the chamber had completed its fiscal year in 1963 without having to borrow money.

In his report at the meeting, Manager Marion Cady noted that the following individuals and businesses have been added by the chamber:

Jack Robinson and Sons, Dean W. Masterson, D. M. D., Cascade Printing, Inc., Imperial Mobile Homes, Inc., Young Equipment Co., Parr's Restaurant, Strout Automotive, Kurtz Fly Company, and Raymond Stacy, doing business as Hugh Simpson Painting.

Don P. Pence, president of Central Oregon College, appeared before the board to explain the $30 million state bonding proposal for higher education which will be voted on at the May 15 election. He solicited and received Chamber assistance in helping to organize a county committee to help present the case for the bond measure.

Pence told the board that it is essential to COC building plans that the measure be approved. Ken Stevens, president of the local motel association, also appeared before the board regarding plans for obtaining a convention center for the city.

At the suggestion of directors, Stevens was urged to have motel representation at meetings of the chamber's industrial committee so that motel owners will have a voice in helping formulate plans for the convention center.

R. G. McFarland presided at the luncheon meeting.

Channel added at Madras

Special to The Bulletin

MADRAS — Users of the Jefferson County Television Inc. translator station which serves the Madras and Culver areas began receiving a third channel on their sets this week when installation of a translator and receiver for Channel 8 from Portland was completed.

Addition of Channel 8 brings the stations available to three. Users were already receiving Channels 6 and 12 from Portland.

Broadcasting of Channel 8 this week climaxed a program of almost three years by directors of the non-profit organization to supply the third channel and represents an expenditure of approximately $6000.

The translator system was a out of service about a week in December when the annual fund drive failed to reach the required goal but additional contributions at that time put the station back on the air.
