Bend loses to Mac in shocker, 61-55

"You can't take any team in this conference lightly," Bend Coach Chuck Hudson said today after the Bend Lava Bears dropped an unexpected 61-55 contest to Mac HI of Milton-Freewater last Saturday night. Hudson, who has always gone by that philosophy, now hopes his basketballers will.

After losing a close 68-63 contest to the defending champion Pendleton Buckaroos Friday night, Bend waxed slow Saturday and lost to Mac, a team that was overlooked by pre-season prognosticators.

Now 2-2 in Intermountain Conference play, Bend was practicing harder than ever tonight after a rather stern lecture from Hudson. "We should be ready for La Grande and Baker this weekend," Hudson opined.

Baker Good

La Grande, a team that won twice two weekends ago, took its lumps twice last Friday and Saturday. Baker, on the other hand, took a belting from The Dalles last Friday for their only loss of the year.

Bend's Saturday opponent, Baker, has been a favorite to dethrone Pendleton. Baker is well-balanced, experienced and has a 20 points or better scoring ace in Mike Courson.

"I hope the setback we took at Milton - Freewater taught our boys a lesson," Hudson said today, "and I think it has."

Mac out-did Bend in all phases. The most glaring example is in the rebound department. Mac pulled down 43 bouncers to Bend's 27. Bend was out-scored in all but the third quarter.

Late Spurge

Behind all the way, Bend suddenly caught fire and surpassed the Mac Pioneers in the final stanza. Bend, then, held a three point bulge with 1:29 to play in the game.

Having gained the advantage on momentum, Hudson wanted his Bears to "keep it up." They stalled instead and lost the game. It all happened in the last 40 seconds.

Bend missed on a 1-1 situation at the free throw line. Mac got the rebound, came down court and scored. Then, seconds later, Mac took another rebound and drew two fouls on a force play near the keyhole. When both of those went in, it was curtains for the locals.

Things Reverse

After some prodding, Hudson admitted, "everything seemed

Bend wrestlers take Buffs in 35-11 mat duel

Bend High School's wrestlers were back practicing fundamentals this afternoon, preparing for a dual meet encounter this coming weekend against the defending district champion Prineville Cowboys.

Bend coaches Glen Hays and Harold Carlile have their work cut out for them. Though improving, the Bend Lava Bears lack depth, an ingredient that Prineville has plenty of.

Prineville, 35-9 winner over The Dalles Friday night and victor over Pendleton Saturday, figures to be Central Oregon's leading mat squad in dual meet competition.

Last weekend Bend gained a 1-1 split in dual meets. Friday night saw the Bend Bears drop a 32-16 duel at Redmond. Saturday, however, the Bears maintained their dual meet win string over Madras by handing the visiting Buffs a 35-11 lacing.

It was the second straight defeat for Coach Dan Lever and his Madras squad. Bend, second place winners in the pre-season Central Oregon tournament, now boasts two wins, a loss and a tie in dual meet action.

Bend - Madras, weight by weight:

98 - Horn (M) dec. Iverson (B), 7-6.
106 - Dave Jarvis (B) dec. Smoot (M) 14-11.
115 - Bettinger (M) dec. Frazer (B) 9-0.
123 - Linville (B) Nichols (M) drew at 5-5.
130 - Jacobson (B) dec. Bierly (M) 7-0.
136 - Marcoulier (B) dec. Arthur (M) 2-0.
141 - Gettmann (B) pinned Holmes (M) third round.
148 - Borresson (B) dec. Hyder (M) 5-0.
157 - Mayer (B) dec. Ashby (M) 9-3.
168 - Westfall (M) dec. Franklin (B) 5-4.
178 - Ward (B) dec. Alexander (M) 7-0.
191 - Booze (B) pinned Givens (M), second round.
Heavyweight - Hamm (B) pinned Mehlenback (M) first round.
JV score: Bend 37, Madras 20.

UPS wins again

ELLENSBURG (UPI) - University of Puget Sound, led by Byron Stauffer, defeated Central Washington State College 58-36 in a swimming meet here Saturday.

Stauffer won two events and was on a winning relay team for the Loggers. Garry Malella of Central Washington also was a double winner. UPS is the defending champion in Evergreen Conference swimming competition.

Panthers lose to Buckaroos by 64-40 count

Special to The Bulletin
REDMOND - Coach Buck Kauffman's Redmond Panthers were back on the hardwoods again today after gaining a 1-1 split at Milton - Freewater and Pendleton last weekend.

Coming to town this weekend are the well-balanced Baker Bulldogs and the unpredictable La Grande Tigers. Baker is a popular favorite for the Intermountain title, and the Tigers rate the "darkhorse" role.

Redmond, now 2-2 in conference play, hosts Baker on Friday night.

Split Again

Last weekend was the second in a row for the Panthers to split a twin bill. The Central Oregonians topped Mac HI at Milton - Freewater Friday night, but Saturday saw the hot-shooting Pendleton Buckaroos gun the Cats down, 64-40.

Pendleton, IC defending champions, was just too deadly from the outside. The Bucks connected on 25 out of 54 attempts from the floor. "They were the best shooting team we've met so far," Kauffman said Saturday after the contest.

"Though Pendleton blistered the twine with amazing consistency, the Bucks, 'were not so hot on defense,'" Kauffman opined. "We got through for good shots plenty of times, but just couldn't hit them," he said.

Bucks Get Rebounds

Pendleton also prevailed in the rebound department. Progressive scoring by quarters shows the Bucks led the contest all the way. Pendleton was ahead 13-5 at the end of the first quarter, and 29-17 at the half. By the end of the third stanza, the Panthers were behind 53-40.

Though the Buckaroos spread the bulk of their scoring over four players, Redmond's Gary Wing grabbed high scoring honors with 22 counters.

Dick Jones was high for the Bucks with 15. Jim Harrison connected for 12, Buck Corey hit 10, and Jack Baird got 10.

Howell Limited

John Howell, who was high for the night before at Milton-Freewater, was limited to five.

Box score:
Redmond (40) (64) Pendleton
Wing 22 15 Jones
Howell 5 6 Carter
Hught 4 10 Corey
Marquess 0 10 Baird
Hogan 1 12 Harrison

Scoring subs: Redmond - Parsons 2, Crenshaw 2, and Mills 4. Pendleton - Brenner 3, Erickson 4, and Cowpoo 4.

PCL directors give pairings, starts April 17

OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI) - Pacific Coast League directors Sunday announced opening day pairings for a 159-game schedule for the 1964 season.

League President Dewey Soriano said league play would begin April 17. He said details of the schedule would not be announced until later because some changes may be necessary.

The opening-day pairings have Seattle at Indianapolis, Portland at Little Rock, Spokane at Oklahoma City, Tacoma at Dallas, San Diego at Denver and Salt Lake City at Hawaii.

Soriano said the schedule called for eastern division teams to meet the western division teams on a home-and-home basis four times. The eastern teams will make one trip to Hawaii and western teams will visit the Islanders twice.

Cowboy grapplers clean up on Pendleton, 33-11

Crook County High School's wrestling team will rate a heavy favorite's role Saturday when they host the Bend Lava Bear matmen.

Prineville's Cowboys (Crook County) made a double clean up last weekend when they annihilated The Dalles Indians 35-9 Friday evening, and mopped up the Pendleton Buckaroos Saturday, 33-11.

Prineville picked up two pins and eight decisions. Pendleton gained two matches by decisions and drew at 141 pounds.

Clark Col. nips UO Frosh 84-77

VANCOUVER, Wash. (UPI)—Howard Nagle scored 18 points and Tom Owens tallied 17 to lead Clark Junior College to an 84-77 basketball win over the Oregon Frosh Saturday night.

Dave Rompanen hit 17 and Nick Jones had 15 for Oregon, which previously was unbeaten in three starts.

DePaul gets 11th by taking Pilots

CHICAGO (UPI) - Unbeaten DePaul posted its 11th win of the basketball season by rolling over the Portland Pilots 111-83 Saturday night.

Dennis Freund scored 29 points and Emmett Bryant tallied 19 for DePaul, which led 50-36 at halftime. Cincy Powell led Portland with 19.

WANTED! MEN - WOMEN

Prepare now for U.S. Civil Service job openings in this area during the next 12 months.

Government positions pay as high as $44,000 a month to start. They provide much greater security than private employment and excellent opportunity for advancement. Many positions require little or no specialized education or experience.

But to get one of these jobs, you must pass a test. The competition is keen and in some cases only one out of five pass.

Lincoln Service helps thousands prepare for them every year. It is one of the largest and oldest privately owned schools of its kind and is not connected with the Government.

Grizzlies come back but lose to Chiloquin, 70-55

Special to The Bulletin
GILCHRIST - Coach Jerry Bennett's Gilchrist High School Grizzlies may see some lineup changes this week before the squad tries to get back on the winning track this coming weekend.

Bennett imagines possible victories Friday night when Gilchrist hosts Bly and Saturday night when the Grizzlies travel to Paisley.

Varsity veterans were replaced by JV's last Saturday night and it nearly did the trick. Gilchrist narrowed the gap from 23 points to seven in the third quarter, but finally lost to visiting Chiloquin, 70-55.

Trailing 48-20 at the half, the Grizzlies out-scored their adversaries in the third and fourth quarters. Don Taylor of Chiloquin was high scorer with 24.

Dan Hoff paced the Grizzlies with 16. Freshman Calvin Bonner contributed 14.

Gilchrist's JV's ran roughshod over the Chiloquin juniors in the preliminary, 73-35.

Box score:
Chiloquin (70) (55) Gilchrist
Diullo 17 11 Koski
Taylor 24 16 Hoff

Cougs lose

PULLMAN (UPI)—The University of Washington defeated Washington State University 25-16 in intercollegiate wrestling Saturday.

Frequent wheel alignment is important. Misalignment tears tires, strains bearings and steering linkage. Watch your parking. Banging the curb throws wheels out of place.
