New cleaning, tailoring firm opened here

Open for business for the first time Thursday in a new building is the Millers Cleaners & Tailors firm at 2145 E. First Street.

Owned by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Miller, the establishment will keep its doors open on a six-day-a-week basis, from 7:30 a.m. till 6 p.m.

The Millers are long-time residents of Bend and have been in the cleaning business the past 38 years. Another cleaning shop in Redmond is operated by Miller. His wife will operate the local branch.

The new shop has 2,000 square feet of floor space in a building 22 x 60-feet. Grand opening ceremonies will be conducted later, Miller said.

Assisting Mrs. Miller will be her daughter, Mrs. Roy Franklin, and a brother, Lewis Miller.

The Millers have four children attending Bend schools: Sandy, 7 years; Helen, 9; Arthur, 11, and Fred Crowley, 17, a stepson.

Valentine party being planned

Women board members of the Bend Golf Club are completing plans for their annual Valentine luncheon card party, set for Tuesday, February 11. Bridge, canasta and pinocle will be played.

Tickets for the Valentine luncheon can be obtained at Standifer's, in downtown Bend.

Central Oregon Obituaries

Mrs. Mervyn Wilde

Mrs. Mervyn Wilde of Malin, 50, a frequent visitor to Central Oregon, died last night in a Klamath Falls hospital, from injuries suffered in a two-car collision Tuesday night. Her husband, still hospitalized, was reported to be out of danger.

Wilde has several relatives in Bend. He is the nephew of Mrs. Walter Jensen, the cousin of Mrs. Ralph Graham and the stepson of S. G. Murphy. Wilde is a member of Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, and has attended lodge functions in Bend. A rodeo hobbyist, he has participated in the Prineville Rodeo.

The accident occurred at Mr. and Mrs. Wilde were en route to Malin from Klamath Falls. Their car was struck head-on by one which pulled out from heavy traffic after a basketball game.

The funeral will be held next Monday at 2 p.m., probably in Malin. Mr. and Mrs. Jensen and Mr. and Mrs. Graham plan to attend.

Mrs. Ruth B. Keith

Funeral services for Mrs. Ruth Barendrick Keith of Eugene, a frequent Bend visitor for several years, were held today in McMinnville.

Mrs. Keith was a sister of Mrs. Alva C. Goodrich of Bend. She died Monday night at her home in Eugene at the age of 54. She and her husband, Paul A. Keith, who survives, visited Bend frequently and had many friends here.

Survivors in addition to her husband and sister include four children in Eugene and her mother, Mrs. W. H. Barendrick of Salem.

A heart attack was the cause of death.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodrich attended the funeral today in McMinnville.

Psychologist due to speak

Dr. Walter Klopfer, Portland psychologist, will speak tonight at a meeting of the Central Oregon Mental Health Association. It will be at 8 o'clock, at St. Alban's Church, 14th Street and Sisters Highway, Redmond. The public is invited to attend.

Dr. Klopfer is a member of the psychology department at Portland University, and director of the psychological clinic there.

Dr. Klopfer will discuss needs and recent developments in the field of mental health.

FIRE RUN MADE

Bend firemen Tuesday evening were called to the rural home of Mary Brookfield, Nelson Road, when the aluminum surface of a pressing iron melted from the heat of an electric range on which it was resting. Only damage was to the iron, firemen reported.

Five senior girls named

Five senior girls at the Bend High School this morning were named as winners of a college-assistant program designed to render financial support and professional training through their college years.

Sponsored by Pacific Northwest Bell Telephone Company, the program provides full-time summer employment and part-time school - year employment for the girls. It enables them to defray part of the cost of a college education and gain job experience at the same time.

Selected were: Dorothy Herriges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Herriges, Shevlin Park Road; Ruby Wolfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Edgar Wolfe, 1217 Fresno; Pat Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lewis, Reed Market Road; Karen Van Hise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Van Hise, Route 1, Box 206, and Nancy White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern White, 721 E. 11th. All are 17 years of age.

The girls were selected from among several applicants on the basis of faculty recommendation, personal interview, attendance performance and a grade-point-average of B or better.
