

Russians accuse Britain, United States of planning 'aggression' against Cyprus

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union charged today that Britain and the United States plan "aggression" against Cyprus and warned them not to endanger peace by landing troops on the island.

The Tass news agency disclosed that the Cyprus government told the Soviet government that "there is now a serious danger of aggression against Cyprus."

A Tass statement called on the Western powers to refrain from steps that would "complicate the situation in that area of the globe."

In London, Britain's proposal to send a NATO peace force to the strife-torn island appeared to be gaining support. The United States was said to be the key to the plan, and the Johnson administration was understood to be in favor of some form of U.S. participation in the force, if diplomatic steps also were taken to settle the crisis.

Support Independence

Tass said Russia supports Cyprus' independence "and denounces any attempts of foreign interference in the internal affairs of . . . Cyprus, no matter under what pretext or form it may be carried out."

Informed sources at the London peace conference on Cyprus said other NATO countries were likely to go along with the British peace force proposal if Washington is agreeable.

Sir Arthur Snelling, who discussed the plan with U.S. officials in Washington, returned home Wednesday night to report American reaction.

Diplomatic exchanges were stepped up to align the positions of other NATO nations involved — West Germany, France, Italy and possibly The Netherlands.

The plan calls for stationing a multinational military force in Cyprus to police a cease-fire between the Greek and Turkish Cypriot Communities pending a political settlement of their differences.

Fighting Results

The dispute, stemming from the Turkish minority's fears of having its constitutional rights taken away by the Greek majority government in Cyprus, resulted in fighting that caused 200 deaths before the cease-fire was imposed earlier this month.

Efforts by Britain, Turkey and Greece to resolve the quarrel at the peace conference here have bogged down. The three nations have guaranteed Cyprus' independence under 1960 treaties which changed the Mediterranean island from a British colony to a republic.

The dispute has escalated into a major confrontation between Greece and Turkey, two NATO allies, threatening unity within the Western alliance and peace in the Mediterranean region. Both Greece and Turkey have alerted their military forces in the event of further trouble.

The NATO force envisaged by Britain would replace the existing police force of Greek and Turkish troops commanded by the British.

Two selected for chorus

Special to The Bulletin

REDMOND — Two members of the Redmond Union High School chorus, Pat Hanson and Paul Harvey, will accompany nine members of the RUHS band to Portland as members of the All-State band and chorus.

Miss Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hanson, is second alto and Paul Harvey, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Harvey, is second tenor.

Like members of the band, the chorus delegates were chosen recently at district tryouts. The all-state band and chorus concert will be presented at Madison High School in Portland during spring vacation in mid-March.
