

Speaker notes growing need for scholars

Honor students from four mid-Oregon counties in Bend today for the second annual National Honor Society conference were told that possibly the world today needs scholars who can and care to take on a bigger piece of action.

The speaker was Harry W. Holloway, vice-president of Pacific Northwest Bell. He had as his topic "The Lifework of the Scholar."

Nearly 200 honor roll youngsters from half a dozen high schools heard Holloway's talk delivered as the afternoon session of the conference opened.

"Just a few decades ago it seemed a miracle that a scholar-like Woodrow Wilson could also be a fairly tough-minded politician," Holloway said, adding: "Now every administration and every big business has its 'in house' scholars and intellectuals. It has them because it needs them, and because the need is recognized."

"All this is due not to some reawakening to the value of the scholar. I would like to believe this but I am afraid such is not the case."

"What has happened to create needs and jobs for scholars is the growing interrelatedness and complexity of our society. We simply can't run, or staff, something like the U.S. Department of State or a research minded business with the old style, simple men of action."

"We need some of this type, but now, more than ever, we need the active, caring scholar as well."

"The telephone company official added, noting the experience of his company in hiring college graduates:

"... We found that the single most reliable predictive indicator of a college graduate's success in the Bell system is the rank in his graduating class. A far greater proportion of high ranking students have the best jobs. Forty-five per cent of the men in the top academic third were in our top salary third."

"Any new hire is a risk. Holloway admitted, adding: "But if you start with a good student you have a better chance of coming out with a good manager. We tried to bet most of our chips on the young people who were able to get the best grades in school."

Holloway said in preface to his talk to the assembled honor students: "One of the oldest, most honorable titles is the simple word 'scholar.'"

He said it is obvious that "our society increasingly needs the scholar who is in the mainstream of life — the scholar who can be personally effective in the affairs of men."

MR. AND MRS. DAVID LEE MILLER

Couple at home in Bend following recent wedding

Mr. and Mrs. David Lee Miller (Kraylen Bea Kelly) are at home in Bend at Apt. 7, 406 Wall Street. They were married recently at St. Alban's Episcopal Church in Redmond.

Both young people attend Central Oregon College. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kelly, Redmond. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Verdon Miller, Culver.

The Rev. Rustin Kimsey performed the ceremony. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

Miss Pam Smith, Willamette University, was maid of honor. Miss Shirley Cameron of Portland, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid.

Ken Miller, Portland State College, was his brother's best man. Ushers were Jack Burk, Oregon State University, and Jerry Burk and Tom Williams, Culver.

A reception was held in the church social room, with Mrs. Ken Miller handling the guest book. Bonnie Bishop and Teri Wilson, OSU, and Darlene Matson, COC, were in charge of the gift table.

Gayle Morrison and Elia Pineda of the University of Oregon served punch and coffee. Judy Ferguson, Oregon College of Education, served the wedding cake.

Theft of statue from Prineville nativity scene admitted by two

Special to The Bulletin

PRINEVILLE — Two college men have been found guilty in justice court of the theft of a statue in a large nativity scene placed on the lawn of the Lutheran Church before Christmas.

Lowell Stuart and Robert Knorr, both of Redmond, were tried in justice court and given three penalties on the reduced charge of performing a misdemeanor. According to church officials, the statue stolen was that of Joseph.

The statues in the nativity scene, it was related, had been handmade at a school in Alaska. Replacement of the Joseph

The youths pled guilty to the misdemeanor charge, according to Douglas Shepard, district attorney. Justice of Peace Silas Taylor fined each of the youths $250, with $100 suspended on condition that restitution of the statue be made. He also sentenced each to 30 days in jail with 22 days suspended, the remaining eight days to be served on Sundays so that the youths may continue their studies and part-time occupations.

Finally, Taylor required that the two youths make a personal apology to the minister or deacons of the church.

The statue was taken about December 20. Apprehension of the youths was made on January 9, following investigation by Prineville city police.
