Hagenston faces two indictments

PORTLAND (UPI)—A federal grand jury Wednesday indicted Robert Hagenston, 35, a former FBI agent, on two local bank robbery charges. Hagenston, who also is wanted in Salt Lake City and Seattle in connection with bank robberies there, was indicted just a week after he was arrested here.

One indictment charged him with the attempted robbery last Wednesday of the Metropolitan Branch of the U.S. National Bank. He was apprehended in the bank after a note was handed to a bank official demanding $20,000.

The other indictment charged him with the $828 drive-in hold-up at the head office of the U.S. National Bank last Aug. 23.

Holloway named Walsh successor

PORTLAND (UPI)—Charles Holloway Jr. of Portland Wednesday was elected president of the State Board of Higher Education.

Holloway, 52, succeeds William Walsh, Coos Bay, who resigned from the board after 11 years to head the Rockefeller-for-President campaign in Oregon. Holloway is vice president of Northwest Natural Gas Co. and has been vice president of the board.

Pendleton newspaper publisher J. W. (Bud) Forrester was elected vice president. Dr. Ralph Purvine, Salem physician, was named the third member of the board's executive committee.

Bank robber gets 10 years

PORTLAND (UPI)—Bank robber Vern (Smoky) Stover, 40, of Seattle was sentenced to 10 years in prison Wednesday by U.S. District Judge Gus J. Solomon.

Stover's testimony last week was partially responsible for the conviction of another Seattle man, John A. Vladovic, for the robbery of the Hawthorne Branch of the Benjamin Franklin Savings and Loan Association here.

Stover was convicted of the holdup of the St. John's Branch of the same firm.

Dirksen getting ready for fight on civil rights

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, Ill., is organizing his own corps of "floor captains" for the coming civil rights battle.

The omnibus civil rights bill, passed by the House Feb. 10, is expected to be taken up by the Senate sometime next week. The measure seeks to end racial discrimination in voting, education, employment, unions and in use of privately owned lodgings, eating establishments and places of amusement.

Senate Democratic leaders openly acknowledge that they will need Republican help to cut off any southern filibuster and pass the bill. They have said they are willing to give the GOP "full credit" if the necessary votes are provided.

Dirksen has come under fire from some Negro leaders because of his opposition to the key public accommodations section of the bill, but he favors most of the measure.

He intends to name a number of his Republican colleagues to handle separate phases of what is shaping up as a long fight. It is almost certain that GOP Whip Thomas H. Kuchel, Calif., and Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., both longtime civil rights advocates, will be named to that group.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, Mont., who is prepared to bypass the hostile Judiciary Committee, is holding up action on the civil rights bill until the Senate passes the compromise $11.5 billion tax cut bill early next week.

Mansfield designated Senate Democratic Whip Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn., as general floor manager for the civil rights bill. Humphrey will be assisted by Sens. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., who will handle the public accommodations section; Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., Fair Employment Practices (FEPC) section, and Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., judicial questions.

NOTHING FOR FREE—MADISON, Wis. (UPI)—University of Wisconsin students are going to learn at least one thing in college — nothing is for free.

A spokesman for the telephone company said it was checking more than 2,000 long distance phone calls made when the campus telephone system went out of killer. Students who thought they were getting "free" long distance calls will be billed.

'Nice' boy shot by officer in fracas in Spanish Harlem

NEW YORK (UPI)—Spanish Harlem is a squalid place, crime-ridden and a breeding ground for social ills. It isn't easy to grow up to be a "nice" boy there.

Frank Rodriguez, 18, seemed to have risen above his surroundings. He made a point of staying out of trouble. He was to have been graduated from high school this year—more of an accomplishment in this tenebrous jungle than most places in this affluent land.

In 1962, Frank was honored by the Boys Club of New York as its "boy of the year." Frank was married and had an 11-month-old son. His wife Anna expects another child in June.

Killed By Policeman But this portrait of a model youth was shattered Tuesday night by a policeman's bullet. An off-duty probationary patrolman shot Frank dead on a Harlem street. He said the youth attacked him with a knife.

Frank was going to a Boy's Club meeting with a friend. "He kissed me and left," wept his wife, 19. "That's the last I saw of him."

Frank and his friend, Jose Soto, met two other teen-age boys loitering on a street corner. One of them asked Soto for a cigarette and was refused. Insults were exchanged and a fight broke out.

Rodriguez pitched in to help his friend.

Patrolman Donald Meszaros, 23, came upon the melee and, though off-duty, he plunged in to break it up.

Shot In Head Meszaros said Rodriguez lunged at him with a knife and cut his coat. Then he ran.

The policeman said he fired a warning shot. Frank kept running. A second shot hit him in the back of the head. He died instantly.

"Look, I know this was a good kid," said a detective. "But he had a knife."

Frank's widow denied Wednesday he ever carried a knife.

"He never had one. He had never been in trouble," she said.

Then pointing to a portrait of Frank in the $26 a month fourth-floor flat they shared, she said:

"Did you know he was the boy of the year?"

STIR SOME INTEREST

RENO, Nev. (UPI)—A recent report that silver dollars may become collector's items within a year has stirred a reaction in at least one "collector."

The U. S. Postal Service reported that 7,000 of the silver coins were stolen from the Riverside postal annex. The 420 pounds of "cart wheels" were hauled away in seven mail sacks.

Negro leaders report plans to go ahead with planned boycott next week of Boston schools

By United Press International Negro leaders say they will go ahead with a planned boycott of Boston city schools next week in protest against the alleged racial imbalance in the institutions.

The Rev. James P. Breeden of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) made the announcement Wednesday night following a two-hour meeting with the Boston school committee.

Breeden termed the meeting "deeply disappointing." Four of the five committee members deny that a racial imbalance exists.

Police arrested more than 40 Negroes at Pine Bluff, Ark., Wednesday night during a demonstration in front of a lunch counter where jailed Negro comedian Dick Gregory was arrested Monday. The Negroes were arrested when they tried to enter the segregated restaurant.

At Montgomery, Ala., State Atty. Gen. Richmond Flowers filed a motion for dismissal of a federal suit by Negroes seeking desegregation of all public schools in Alabama. A three-judge federal panel will hear arguments Friday on the Negroes' request for a blanket injunction against segregated schools. Elsewhere in the nation: Tampa, Fla.: Plans to integrate the white and Negro jurisdiction of the Methodist Church were announced

Same gun seen used in shooting

DALLAS (UPI)—Ballistic tests, police said today, give a good indication that the same rifle that shot President Kennedy was used by a sniper who tried to kill former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker.

"The ballistic report cannot be final or conclusive," police said, "but generally the comparison points of the slugs were good."

Mrs. Marina Oswald told authorities that her husband, Lee Harvey Oswald, told her that he was the sniper who shot a single shot over Walker's shoulder last April at the general's home in Dallas.

FREY SELECTED

PORTLAND (UPI)—Michael J. Frey, publisher of the Portland Oregonian, was named 1964 president of the Lang Synce Society Wednesday night.

Frey succeeds City Commissioner Ormond Bean as head of the 51-year-old organization.

Members must be businessmen or have held positions of trust and responsibility for at least 30 years.

Wednesday at a meeting of a National board of the church.

Miami Beach: AFL-CIO leaders revealed that President Johnson is appointing 16 labor leaders to develop programs aimed at halting racial discrimination in union ranks and creating more job opportunities for Negroes.

Jackson, Miss.: Bills approved by the House Wednesday would authorize municipalities, in the event of racial disorder, to pool manpower and equipment and to restrict the movement of any or all citizens.

Columbia, S.C.: A House committee reported favorably Wednesday on a bill aimed at ending racial demonstrations by teen-agers. The bill would fix a fine of $100, 30 days in jail or both for demonstrations by youths 17 years of age or under. The parents as well as the youth could be held responsible.

Jackson, Miss.: U.S. District Judge Sidney Mize has before him a request to set a hearing as soon as possible on suits to desegregate schools at Jackson and Biloxi and Leake County.

New Orleans: A Negro honor student from Xavier University of New Orleans said Wednesday she had received an invitation to apply for graduate work at the segregated University of Mississippi. However, Nicola Felton, a chemistry senior, said she would not try to enter the Mississippi school.
