Indians vow they'll continue angling battle

OLYMPIA (UPI)—Screen actor Marlon Brando has gone home but Washington State Indians today vowed to continue their fight against state efforts to force them to obey fish conservation laws.

In the thick of the battle are five Indians who face 30-day jail sentences for contempt of court because they defied an injunction prohibiting them from fishing with nets on the Nisqually River.

They went fishing Wednesday in an effort to assert what they consider their treaty-guaranteed right to fish as they please in their "usual and accustomed grounds."

Pierce County Superior Court Judge William LeVeque then ordered them locked up.

While the Nisqually were staging their fish-in, Brando was more than 100 miles away on the Quillayute Reservation in the Northwest corner of the Olympic Peninsula.

The actor failed for the second time this week to be jailed for illegal fishing.

Brando went out in a boat with some Indians and returned a short time later carrying a fish. However, Walter Neubrecht, chief enforcement officer for the State Game Department, said he believed the fish had been "stashed on the bank."

Neubrecht said he did not believe Brando was actually fishing "therefore we have no grounds on which to arrest him."

Neubrecht did arrest Brando Monday but Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney John G. McCutcheon decided the actor fished "just for show" and there was no purpose in locking him up. He refused to prosecute.

Some of the Indians who fished the Nisqually grumbled that Brando should have joined them. They said the actor had promised to lend moral and financial support to their demonstration.

Broiler chicks hatched in '63 hit new record

By Gaylord P. Godwin
UPI Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Crop Reporting Board said today 2,054,365,000 broiler chicks were hatched in the 22 important broiler-producing states in 1963.

The number of broiler chicks hatched was three per cent larger than in 1962 and the largest of record.

The states where these broiler chicks were produced account for about 93 per cent of the broilers. They are: Georgia, Arkansas, Alabama, North Carolina, Mississippi, Texas, Maryland, Delaware, Maine, California, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Virginia, West Virginia, South Carolina, Florida, Louisiana, Washington and Oregon.

The Agriculture Department has set the national average support price for 1964-crop dry beans at $6.32 per hundredweight, the same as for the 1963 crop.

The department said the support rates for 11 classes of dry beans, based on the national average support price, were unchanged from 1963.

The average support price of $6.32 per hundredweight for all classes is about 68 per cent of the February, 1964, dry bean parity price of $9.33 per hundredweight.

The government's weekly weather and crop bulletin said the condition of the winter wheat crop in the Southern great plains continued to improve in the week ended March 2. The improvement was noted in areas of Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, and Colorado.

The weather bureau said fall-sown small grains in Nebraska were greening as favorable mild temperatures prevailed. In Montana, there was light to moderate damage to wheat from high winds. Dry soil conditions prevailed in Wyoming and South Dakota. Small grains in Colorado were in satisfactory condition, except for wind damage in the southeastern part of the state.

Fall-seeded grains were greening up in the Western corn belt states. More rain was needed despite an improvement in topsoil moisture during February, the bureau said.

Citrus groves in Florida were reported in excellent condition. Vegetable harvest in California continued active although the growth of some crops was slowed by dry winds.

The Agriculture Department said 1963-crop wheat under price support as of Feb. 15 totaled 105.8 million bushels. The department said this was the smallest amount of the previous year's crop to be under price support during the past 11 years. Farmers put 171.4 million bushels under support through Feb. 15, but had redeemed 65.6 million bushels as of that date.

The Foreign Agricultural Service said the United States exported larger amounts of wheat and flour (grain equivalent) between July 1 and Dec. 31, 1963, than it did during any similar period in the past 30 years. FAS said exports during this six-month period also were greater than those exported during any entire fiscal year prior to 1945.

Increased shipments to Europe because of drought, greater domestic requirements brought total U.S. shipments to almost 65 million bushels during July-December, 1963, as compared with 30 million bushels during the corresponding period a year earlier.

FAS said exports to Common Market countries were up 92 per cent, Eastern European countries up 22 per cent, and to other European countries up 84 per cent.

Total U.S. wheat shipments to all markets during July-December, 1963, were 387 million bushels. A year earlier, total shipments for the six-month period were 277 million bushels.

Scranton asks legal opinion on Oregon race

HARRISBURG, Pa. (UPI)—Gov. William W. Scranton indicated Wednesday he does not want to sign any affidavit that would take him out of the running for the Republican nomination.

At a news conference, Scranton said he hoped to have a legal opinion soon on whether he can withdraw from the May 15 Oregon primary and still remain a presidential possibility.

Under Oregon statutes, the secretary of state can place on the primary ballot any person prominently mentioned as a presidential prospect. If the person wants to strike his name, he must sign an affidavit which, according to general beliefs, removes him from presidential consideration.

Although Scranton disclaims any ambition to become president he has been reluctant to sign such an affidavit for fear it would impair his availability for an "honest and sincere draft" for the nomination.

He said Atty. Gen. Walter E. Alessandrini, a legal and political advisor, was checking Oregon law.

Fleet postpones visit to Greece

ATHENS (UPI)—Anti-American demonstrations forced postponement of a visit to Greece today by the U.S. 6th Fleet.

The fleet was scheduled to begin the six-day visit today at Piraeus, the Aegean Sea port near Athens, but Greek military sources said it was called off for the present because of two days of demonstrations in the capital.

Greek demonstrators, protesting the U.S. stand on Cyprus, Wednesday whitewashed a statue of former President Harry S. Truman.

The statue was erected last year through contributions by Greeks and Americans in honor of Truman's help to this nation in its civil war against the Communists.

SNAPS AT JUDGE

LONDON (UPI)—Leslie Williams was jailed for contempt in London's divorce court Wednesday for "snapping his fingers" at a judge's order not to molest his estranged wife.
