Glenn's name ordered off ballot in Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — The Ohio Supreme Court Tuesday ordered Secretary of State Ted W. Brown to remove the name of former astronaut John Glenn Jr. from the May 5 primary election ballot.

The court issued an alternative writ of mandamus giving Brown, the state's chief election official, until Friday to show why he should not be required to follow the order.

Glenn, a Marine Corps lieutenant colonel, withdrew from the race as a candidate for the Democratic nomination to the U.S. Senate last week because of injuries received in a fall last month.
