Game, forest officials hold session here

Game and forest officials and representatives from range and wildlife stations in several states were here today for a meeting, primary purpose of which is to coordinate research in connection with the Silver Lake deer habitat study.

Today's meeting was held in the library of the new Bend Silviculture Laboratory on Awbury Heights, with more than 20 present for a conference over which Dr. David F. Costello, chief of the division of range and wildlife habitat research of the Forest Service, Portland, presided at the morning session.

Here the conference is Kenneth W. Parker of Washington, D.C., director of range and wildlife research for the U.S. Forest Service.

Officials from the Pacific Southwest Experiment Station, Berkeley, Calif., and from the Intermountain Experiment Station in Logan, Utah, were also here.

On Tuesday, the game and range officials, Bureau of Land Management, U.S. Forest Service and Oregon State Game Commission personnel were among those who visited the Silver Lake area, to inspect deer enclosures on the Fremont National Forest.
