Bulletin photographer John Buchner visited the high school earlier in the week. Since then, rain, wind, and some snow in the area has curtailed the outside studying but only temporarily.

Mothers Club installs officers

New officers of the Oregon State University Mothers Club were installed Tuesday evening following a dessert in the Superior Cafe banquet room.

Mrs. Charles W. Boyd, a past president, was installing officer.

Mrs. Don Peters, retiring president, presided at the meeting.

The new officers are Mrs. Claude Sell, president; Mrs. Larry Glasheen, vice-president; Mrs. Wilbur L. Sampels, treasurer, and Mrs. C. I. McKinney, secretary.

In an informal candle ceremony, Mrs. Boyd likened the flame to education, which brings freedom from ignorance, and with that, other basic freedoms.

Announcement was made of the rummage sale to be held by the group Friday and Saturday, April 24 and 25, in the City Drug building. This is the club's only fund-raising project for its scholarship program.

Scholarship applications are available at the high school and at Central Oregon College, and should be returned by the end of this month, it was announced by Mrs. Walter Berger, scholarship chairman.

Several indicated that they plan to attend annual Mothers Weekend, May 1-3 on the Corvallis campus.

Dick Snyder, 186 E. Revere, reported that his garage had been entered sometime on Wednesday. Nothing was reported missing.

Excursion train due in Madras area on May 17

A thousand or more railroad fans from the Portland area will visit Madras and the Round Butte dam on Sunday, May 17, on an excursion that will feature the scenery and geology of the Deschutes gorge.

The excursion will be under sponsorship of Sunset Tours, sponsored by the Vernonia, South Park & Sunset Steam Railroad, Inc., a railroad "buff" group with headquarters at Banks.

Similar trips up the Columbia and Deschutes gorges to Madras have been sponsored over a period of years.

Operating over SP & S trackage, the trainload of rail fans, photographers and native lovers will leave from N.W. 10th and Hoyt Streets in Portland at 8 a.m., D.S.T., on May 17 and reach Madras about 2 p.m.

The trip to Round Butte Dam, now nearing completion, will be made by Trailways bus. On the trip out from Portland, a continental breakfast will be served, and a fried chicken lunch will be available later in the day.

This year, a photographer's car will be attached to the train.

Aboard the train will be guides, who will point out spots of geologic and historic interest.

As many as 1,300 people have been aboard trains which Sunset Tours operated between Portland and Madras in recent years.

Budget adopted

A hearing on the Central Oregon Area Education District budget was held Wednesday evening in the Bend Senior High School library, with no one present to contest the budget. Accordingly, the budget for the 1964-65 school year was adopted as published.

The budget will be presented to voters at the May 15 primary election.

Board members present for the evening hearing were Chairman William C. Robinson, Madras; William E. Miller, Bend; Rupert Park, Redmond; Owen Panner, Bend, and Don Pence, Central Oregon College president and board clerk.

The excursion will be under sponsorship of Sunset Tours, sponsored by the Vernonia, South Park & Sunset Steam Railroad, Inc., a railroad "buff" group with headquarters at Banks.
