

What's Available NOW On hulu

“Rob Riggle: Global Investigator”

Actor Rob Riggle takes his passion for adventure across the globe in hopes of solving some of the world's greatest mysteries in this series that premiered on Discovery Channel last spring. His travels will take him to Scotland in search of The Holy Grail, diving in Greece for the lost city of Atlantis and jetting off to Key West to look for a pirate's hidden treasure.

“River Monsters”

The final season of this unscripted series in which host Jeremy Wade goes in search of the fiercest aquatic creatures brings him face-to-face with sea life such as barracuda, Greenland shark, needlefish, stingray, snakehead, Gharial crocodile, giant trevally, Asian water monitor, bull shark and Wallago catfish.

“Movie: The Secrets We Keep”

Noomi Rapace (“The Girl Who Played With Fire”) stars as a woman in post-World War II America who kidnaps a neighbor she believes committed heinous war crimes against her in this 2020 drama from writer/director Yuval Adler (“Bethlehem,” “The Operative”). Joel Kinnaman (“For All Mankind”), Chris Messina (“Argo”) and Amy Seimetz (“Pet Sematary”) also star.

“Jann”

From CTV in Canada comes this comedy series, which stars Canadian singer/songwriter/actress Jann Arden (“Workin’ Moms”) as a fictionalized version of herself, just out of a long-term relationship with a female partner and on a quest for renewed fame. Deborah Grover, Zoie Palmer and Elena Juatco are also in the cast. (ORIGINAL)

As she performs “FBI” duty now, Missy Peregrin also is on another case: parenthood.

The “Rookie Blue” alum missed much of the CBS drama's second season as she and actor husband Tom Oakley welcomed their first child, Otis. She's now back for Season 3, which has aired only two new episodes, having been delayed by the coronavirus pandemic ... but it returns with a special Sunday airing after the AFC championship football game Jan. 24, then resumes in its usual Tuesday slot two nights later.

“‘Overwhelming’ is probably the best word,” the friendly Peregrin allows of her new balance between work and family. “It's a lot of adjustments and changes. I didn't really consider myself a career person until I had a child, and now, work is completely different because all I'm thinking about is Otis. You're so emotionally attached to this person, and it's something you've never experienced before.”

Peregrin is grateful, therefore, to be back in the company of “FBI” co-workers she already knew well. “It would be much harder if it was a brand-new job,” she reasons. “It feels really nice to have the same team.”

Maggie Bell's (Peregrin) return to FBI duty has been marked by her revelation to partner “OA” (Zeeko Zaki) that she is romantically involved with a colleague from her recent undercover assignment.

“I think it's a really big deal for Maggie to have somebody in her life in a serious way,” Peregrin reflects. “Especially because of what happened to her husband (a reporter who died in a supposed car accident), she'd probably want to keep it as private as possible. There's been some good character stuff.”

Birthdate: June 16, 1982

Birthplace: Montreal

Current residence: New York

Marital status: Married to Australian actor and producer Tom Oakley; they have one child, Otis, born last March

Other television credits include: “Van Helsing,” “Ten Days in the Valley,” “The Night Shift,” “Saving Hope,” “Law & Order: Special Victims Unit,” “Hawaii Five-0,” “Motive,” “Cybergeddon,” “Rookie Blue,” “Reaper,” “Heroes,” “Life As We Know It,” “Call Me: The Rise and Fall of Heidi Fleiss,” “Andromeda,” “Smallville,” “Tru Calling,” “Jake 2.0,” “Black Sash,” “The Chris Isaak Show,” “Dark Angel”

Movie credits include: “Backcountry,” “Wide Awake,” “Stick It”