SPORTS BRIEFING

WORLD CUP SKIING

Swiss skier Beat Feuz wins 2nd Kitzbühel downhill

in 3 days— For the second time in three days, Beat Feuz triumphed in a race that he had unsuccessfully tried to win for a decade. The Swiss skier won this weekend's second men's World Cup downhill on the Streif course Sunday, repeating his victory from two days earlier. The back-to-back wins came after Feuz, who first raced here in 2010, finished runner-up in the traditional race four times in the past five seasons. "It's very special. Two wins in Kitzbühel this week, that's incredible, and an incredibly nice feeling," Feuz said. No Swiss skier had won Austria's signature ski race since Didier Cuche earned the last of his five victories here in 2012. Sunday's race was interrupted for a few minutes because of flat light as low clouds moved in just before Feuz was set to start.

Gut-Behrami wins tricky World Cup super-G on home course — Lara Gut-Behrami mastered a tricky World Cup super-G on Sunday where several top racers were caught out at two jumps. On a picture postcard 27 degree day in the Swiss Alps, home favorite Gut-Behrami finished 0.93 seconds faster than Tamara Tippler. Federica Brignone, the defending overall World Cup champion, was 1.02 back in third. Five of the top 20 highest-ranked starters skied out or were disqualified, including Sofia Goggia who won downhills on the Mont Lachaux slope the previous two days. Gut-Behrami now has 14 of her 28 career World Cup wins in super-G, which lemands speed, technical skills and an ability to improvise through unfamiliar gates. Unlike in downhill, racers do not train on the exact course-setting.

Si Woo Kim holds off Cantlay to win The American Express — Si Woo Kim birdied two of the final three holes to finish a rock-solid, 8-under 64, coolly rallying past latecharging Patrick Cantlay by one shot to win The American Express on Sunday for his third PGA Tour victory. Kim began the final round with a share of the lead as he attempted to win for the first time since the 2017 Players Championship. The 25-year-old South Korean didn't flinch when Cantlay shot a 61 and surged out of 13th place to the front while breaking the Stadium Course record by two strokes.

Korda rallies to beat Kang in playoff at LPGA opener

- For Jessica Korda, the Diamond Resorts Tournament of Champions was all about her ability to just hang in there. Trailing by three shots headed to the back nine at Four Seasons Golf and Sports Club Orlando on Sunday, she first caught Danielle Kang with a late four-birdie burst to shoot 5-under 66, then won with a curling 30-footer for birdie on the first playoff hole. Kang shot 68. The leader after each of the first three rounds, she had a chance to extend the playoff, but missed her 18-foot birdie putt. It was the sixth LPGA victory for the 27-year-old Korda, her last one coming nearly three years ago.

Oregon, which had three games postponed last week due to COVID-19 issues in the program, played without leading scorer Chris Du-arte and top rebounder LJ Figueroa, who both tested positive. Oregon also is without starting guard Will Richardson, who has yet to play due to a thumb injury, and center N'Faly Dante, who is out for the year with a knee injury.

"They were missing two big pieces so we know it is going to be a different team the next time we face them," Tinkle said. "We could have laid an egg thinking this game was going to be an easier game, but I am happy with our guys for staying focused and humble."

BIG PICTURE

Oregon State: After losing 98-64 at home to Arizona last week, the Beavers have rebounded with three straight wins to move above .500 in conference play. Oregon State sits in seventh place in the Pac-12, but just one game out of fourth. "We have come a long way these past three games," Thompson said. "From the start of the season where we were losing close games or getting up in games and not being able to finish out, this team has matured and come a long way."

Oregon: The Ducks had just eight scholarship players available. They hope to get Duarte and Figueroa back when they go on a threegame trip to Los Angeles next week.

Now look where they are. Tampa Bay took command in the middle portion of the game.

Green Bay trailed 14-10 and had the ball just before halftime until Sean Murphy-Bunting picked off Rodgers at the Tampa Bay 49-yard line with 28 seconds remaining. After Tampa Bay was at Green Bay's second remaining.

history with consecutive games of at least 100 yards receiving each in a single postseason.

Clyde Edwards-Helaire and Darrel Williams added short TD runs for the Chiefs, who will try to become the eighth franchise and first team since the Brady-led New England Patriots in 2003 and '04 to defend the Lombardi Trophy.

Allen, who had his worst game of the season in a Week 6 loss to the Chiefs, again struggled against the blitzing Kansas City defense. He finished with 287 yards passing with two touchdowns and an interception, but a big chunk of his numbers came as the Bills tried take chances to win the game," Arians said. "Love the play we had. Got a great matchup and got a TD. That was huge?"

The Bucs built a 28-10 lead early in the third quarter thanks to Brady's three touchdown passes. Brady went 20 of 36 for 280 yards.

The Packers got the ball to start the second half, and Aaron Jones caught a short third-down pass. He took a huge hit from Jordan Whitehead that knocked the ball loose. Devin White recovered and ran 21 yards to the Green Bay 8.

One play later, Brady found a wide-open Cameron Brate to rally from a 38-15 deficit in the final minutes.

Their frustration boiled over with 3:19 to go, when Allen was getting sacked by Tanoh Kpassagnon. Alex Okafor finished off the tackle, and Allen pitched the ball in his face in resentment. Offensive linemen Jon Feliciano and Dion Dawkins rushed in and leveled Okafor, resulting in a flood of offsetting personal foul penalties.

It capped a bitter loss for the Bills, who had reached their first AFC title game since beating Kansas City at home on Jan. 1, 1994. They had won 11 of 12 since their loss to the Chiefs earlier this season — in to extend Tampa Bay's lead to 28-10.

The Packers rallied as Brady threw interceptions on three straight drives for just the second time in his career. Green Bay cut the lead to 28-23 late in the third quarter on Rodgers' touchdown passes to Robert Tonyan and Davante Adams.

SUCCESS DURING A PANDEMIC

The Buccaneers are the third Tampa team to play for a championship during the pandemic. The Lightning won the Stanley Cup in 2020, and the Rays lost to the Dodgers in the World Series.

fact, they hadn't trailed in the second half since Week 8 and were riding a wave of confidence that this might finally be their championship year.

Instead, after finally conquering the Patriots in the ÂFC East, the Bills have a new roadblock to the Super Bowl.

The Chiefs actually spotted the Bills a 9-0 lead, thanks in large part to Mecole Hardman's muffed punt inside their 5 that gifted Buffalo a touchdown. But the reigning champs were hardly rattled; the Chiefs, after all, rallied from double-digits in each of their postseason wins last season, including their Super Bowl triumph.
