Shiffrin left fuming over start delay — Mikaela Shiffrin slammed Slovakian race organizers after a women's World Cup giant slalom Sunday, calling them "unprofessional" for making her wait in the start gate before her final run for what she felt was too long. Holding a slim lead from the opening leg, Shiffrin was ready to start when she had to wait for two minutes while course workers replaced a broken gate. Finally allowed to go, the American posted only the 11th-fastest time and dropped to third, 0.37 behind the winner, Petra Vlhova of Slovakia. "It took (two) minutes to fix a gate, that should take 30 seconds," Shiffrin said. "I just felt like she is a good enough skier to win these races on her own and doesn't need this unprofessional act from something that she doesn't have control over, I don't have control over, but just to say, 'Oh, she is in the lead, let's see if we can do something to get into (Shiffrin's) head." While Shiffrin acknowledged interruptions are a common part of the sport, she said the lengthy delay was not necessary this time. By beating her rival, Vlhova turned the tables on Shiffrin a day after the American had beaten her in the slalom. Vlhova finished 10th and 12th in the last two giant slaloms on the World Cup, and

Ernst wins Drive On Championship for 3rd LPGA title —

Austin Ernst won the Drive On Championship on Sunday for her third LPGA Tour title, pulling away to beat fellow former NCAA champion Jennifer Kupcho by five strokes at Golden Ocala. Tied for the lead with Kupcho after each of the first two rounds and a stroke ahead entering the day, Ernst closed with a 2-under 70 to finish the wire-to-wire victory at 15-under 273. "I think it's just really cool to be in the heat of it all week and to be able to perform the way I did," Ernst said. Kupcho, coming off a closing eagle Saturday, had a double bogey and three bogeys in a 74. Following sisters Jessica and Nelly Korda in the first two events of the year, Ernst gave the United States three straight victories to open a season for the first time since 2007. The 29-year-old former LSU star from South Carolina, showing her school spirit Sunday with a purple shirt, also won the 2014 Portland Classic and the 2020 NW Arkansas Championship. She won the NCAA title in 2011. Nelly Korda, tied with Ernst and Kupcho for the first-round lead, had weekend rounds of 76 and 75 to tie for 28th at even par. Jessica Korda shot a 71 to tie for eighth at 4 under.

No. 4 Stanford drubs No. 9 UCLA, 75-55, wins Pac

12 title— Kiana Williams scored 26 points to lead No. 4 Stanford to the Pac 12 Tournament championship with a 75-55 win over No. 9 UCLA on Sunday night. Stanford, which has made the Pac-12 championship game 18 times in 20 total tournaments, improved to 14-4 in the finals while winning its third title in five years. Lexie Hull added 24 points while Haley Jones finished with 10 points and 13 rebounds for Stanford (25-2). Michaela Onyenwere led UCLA (16-5) with 30 points. Charisma Osborne finished with 11 points and five rebounds for the Bruins. The game was a renewal of one of the more storied rivalries in Pac 12 postseason history, as Stanford has played UCLA more than any other team in the Pac-12 Tournament. The Cardinal improved to 11-1 against the Bruins in the event - including four wins in championship meetings.

AP source: Blake Griffin agrees to deal with Nets —

Blake Griffin is joining the collection of stars in Brooklyn.The six-time All-Star agreed to sign with the Nets, a person with knowledge of the details said Sunday. Griffin became a free agent Friday when he completed a buyout agreement with the Detroit Pistons. He cleared waivers Sunday and was eligible to sign with any team. The often-injured forward decided to join All-Stars Kevin Durant, Kyrie Írving and James Harden in Brooklyn, the person told The Associated Press on condition of anonymity because there was no announcement. ESPN first reported Griffin's plans. The 31-year-old Griffin is a six-time All-Star who has averaged 21.4 points and 8.7 rebounds since being the No. 1 pick in the 2009 draft.

Lillard pulled up for a 3-pointer from the half-court line. Not to be outdone, Curry knocked down one from virtually the same spot.

The atmosphere at State Farm Arena was downright eerie compared to a normal All-Star Game.

Instead of a packed house, with A-list celebrities crammed into prime courtside seats, this game was attended by a smattering of hand-picked guests. They had plenty of room to spread out in a 17,000-seat venue that was essentially transformed into a giant television studio, with socially distanced spectators kept far from the court.

Towering video screens were set up behind the benches. Vegas-style lights flashed around the arena. Recorded crowd noise blared over the sound system. The entertainment was provided by the host Atlanta Hawks, who didn't have any players in the game but were represented by their cheerleaders, drum line and

To address fears that one of its biggest events would become a super-spreader for a virus that has killed more than a half-million Americans, the NBA pared down its usual weekend-long ritual of extravagant parties, gridlocked streets and people watching

Golden State Warriors guard Stephen Curry holds the trophy after winning the 3-point contest at basketball's NBA All-Star Game in Atlanta on Sunday. Curry shot his way to another 3-point title on Sunday. Curry also won the 3-point contest in 2015.

This All-Star Game was a one-night-only event, with a pair of skill competitions held shortly before the game and the Dunk Contest squeezed into the halftime break. The players flew in Saturday afternoon and were largely confined to a nearby hotel except for their time on the court.

'This is when everyone in basketball all over the world comes to one city," James said during a Zoom call before the game. "We're able to sit back and go, 'Wow, this is the game we have built. It's a beautiful weekend for all walks of life, on the floor and off the floor.

"But I'm sitting here in my hotel room, isolated. My family's not here. I'm by myself. It's just different, to say the least, compared to previous years."

Team Durant: Zion Williamson of New Orleans started the game in place of Embiid. The Pelicans forward had 10 points.

Team LeBron: Paul had 16 assists. ... Lillard ended the game with another long 3-pointer.
