SPORTS BRIEFING

GOLF

Westwood grabs lead at Players; defending champ McIlroy misses cut — Lee Westwood had all the shots Friday in a bogey-free round at The Players Championship for a 6-under 66. That gave him a one-shot lead over Matt Fitzpatrick (68) going into the weekend on the Stadium Course at the TPC Sawgrass. Rory McIlroy, who opened with a 79, wasn't much better Friday. He made another double bogey on the 10th hole and shot 75. He is the first defending champion to miss the cut since Rickie Fowler in 2016.

 Shortly after falling behind a goal, the Cougars (2-1) had a golden opportunity to tie the game with a penalty kick, but Parker Harrison's attempt ricocheted off the right post. "Those are young mistakes," said Mountain View coach Don Emerson, whose team dropped its first game of the season. "Missing PKs, making a bad pass out of the back, that is what happens when you have a young team. But that is stuff that we can fix moving forward. But even though we lost, I'm glad to get out of here playing well." Both teams' attacks stalled until late in the second half, when Mountain View's Owen Behnke scored off a crossing pass into the box to tie the game 1-1. But the Cougars could not hang on for the tie due to Eckert's heroics. After Eckert's goal, a leaping save in the final minute by Sister senior goalkeeper Nathaniel Alvarez sealed the victory for the Outlaws, who were running on fumes toward the end. "Fatigue was part of the game but we really leaned on each other," Husmann said. "We only had two weeks (of practices before the season started) so the base fitness wasn't there. We just had to dig deep, dig deep." The added energy might have been found from the new addition that had not been seen during the first 10 days of the

Baseball

 "They've got a good combination of power and speed," Oregon coach Mark Wasikowski said. "They play good team defense, there's not a whole lot of holes. Abel's very competitive; he's a very good competitor. He can throw several of his pitches in any count for strikes. He's got a plus changeup, his breaking ball is very good and he's up to 92-93 again, his arm's back to being healthy." "It's more than just him too, they've got very good starting
