Wie West in the hunt early at LPGA's ANA Inspiration

— After failing to make the cut last week in her first tournament back from a 21-month break and the birth of her daughter, Makenna, Wie West made four birdies in a 2-under 70 at the ANA Inspiration LPGA major in Rancho Mirage, California, on Thursday. She finished the day tied for 16th, four shots behind first-round leader Patty Tavatanakit, of Thailand, who has a one-stroke lead after a bogey-free 6-under 66. ... On the PGA Tour, Camilo Villegas chipped in twice to highlight a nine-birdie round that earned him an 8-under 64 and the first-round lead at the Texas Open on Thursday. Sung Kang is two shots back with Cameron Tringale after each had a 66 at TPC San Antonio's Oaks Course. Jordan Spieth, whose struggles the past three years appear to be subsiding after four top-10 finishes the past two months, is three back (67) with Seung-Yul Noh and Hideki Matsuyama. Phil Mickelson dropped to 15 shots back when he had a 10 on the 18th hole — he took two penalty shots and another three strokes trying to get away from a greenside stream — and ended with a 79.

For much of the first half, the Lava Bears had the more aggressive attack but had some bad luck. Three of their shots ricocheted off the goalposts, which kept them from taking the lead.

"I told them (at halftime) you just have to keep going for it and keep battling and keep going for those opportunities because the goals will come," said Meyers. "And they did."

After halftime, the roles reversed. The Lava Bears scored early when Jolley netted her second goal of the game to give Bend its first lead, 2-1.

However, Summit then had the more dangerous attacks.

A handball in the goalkeeper's box gave the Storm the penalty kick late in the second half for Beaulieu to score the game-tying goal. While both teams had their chances to score the match's winning goal, neither side was able to convert before the final whistle.

For Summit (7-1-1), it was the final match of the season, while Bend High (5-1-1) will have two more matches next week on the road against South Eugene and North Eugene.

Betts led off the game with a single and got two hits in front of an estimated 21,363 fans, which was capacity due to COVID-19 restrictions, in an 8-5 loss to the Rockies.

The crowd varied at each park. There were 10,850 fans at Yankee Stadium, limited to 20% of capacity. Fans had to show proof of complete vaccination at least two weeks earlier or a recent negative virus test, and masks were required.

In the Bronx, the Bleacher Creatures did their Roll Call in the right-field seats and the PA announcer called out "welcome back to Yankee Stadium!"

The whole scene caught Blue Jays rookie reliever Julian Merryweather a bit off-guard. "It was definitely weird," Merryweather said after earning a save in a 3-2, 10-inning win. "I asked a few people: What are all these people doing here? Who are these people? But it was great to have fans again."
