

GO!

see

bendbulletin.com/gosee

CENTRAL OREGON ARTS SCENE

CTC reopens with Cascades Teen Showcase

Submitted photo

Joshua Curtis and Natalie Kniola perform during the shooting of "To Outscheme a Sister." The new short film written by Harper Rich will screen during this weekend's Cascades Teen Showcase at Cascades Theatre in Bend.

BY DAVID JASPER • The Bulletin

Cascades Theatrical Company will finally reopen its doors to audiences this weekend with the inaugural Cascades Teen Showcase, proving once again that good things are worth the wait. Patrons will be treated to five original one-acts written by area teens and read by adult actors, along with two mystery one-acts performed by teens and a short film version of a prize-winning play by Bend High student Harper Rich.

Continued on next page