

Submitted photo

Fern Sutherland, Nic Sampson and Neill Rea perform in a scene from "The Brokenwood Mysteries" (2014-present).

KILLER TV MYSTERIES AND DOCUMENTARIES TO STREAM

BY MAKENZIE WHITTLE • The Bulletin

Whether you're into the real stories told with hard-hitting, gritty detail or prefer your mysteries firmly in the realm of fiction, there are many options out there for you armchair detectives. Here are just a few compelling shows to choose from. Be forewarned, some documentary series' can get gruesome or explicit (most of them warn you before you turn them on). They can also be hard yet somehow addictive to watch so always pace yourself, maybe go outside for a while between episodes.

Continued on next page