SPORTS BRIEFING

GOLF

OSU's record-tying round vaults Beavers into a big lead after two rounds of NCAA Albuquerque men's golf regional — Oregon State men's golf continued its torrid run at the NCAA Albuquerque Regional, as the Beavers widened their lead to five strokes after Tuesday's second round. OSU tied a school record with a 13-under 275 to take command of the 14-team regional at UNM Championship Course. Led by senior Spencer Tibbits' 6-under 66, the Beavers matched their best-ever one-round total at an NCAA regional. Oregon State, the regional's No. 7 seed, has a 36-hole total of 20-under 556, five strokes ahead of Texas Tech with one round remaining. The Beavers have never won an NCAA regional. OSU's best regional finish is fourth in 2010. Among individuals, Tibbits has a one-stroke lead with a two-round total of 9-under 135. The OSU senior had seven birdies and one bogey to match his career-low score during a college tournament.

BASKETBALL

Ionescu records 1st WNBA triple-double as Liberty top Lynx — Sabrina Ionescu had the first triple-double of her WNBA career to lead New York to an 86-75 win over the Minnesota Lynx on Tuesday night, giving the Liberty their first 3-0 start in 14 years. Ionescu, who had an NCAA record 26 triple-doubles in college, recorded the first in franchise history with 26 points, 12 assists and 10 rebounds. The No. 1 pick in the 2020 draft became the 10th player in league history to have a triple-double, and first since Chelsea Gray did it in 2019. Ionescu reached the triple-double with her 10th rebound with 5:24 left in the fourth. She hit a 3-pointer that extended the advantage to 75-65. Sylvia Fowles led the Lynx (0-2) with 26 points and 11 rebounds. Kayla McBride scored 16 points and Jessica Shepard had 12.

Trail Blazers' Stotts named Western Conference Coach of the Month for May — The Portland Trail Blazers entered May desperately trying not to fall into the play-in round. Having already won three consecutive games to end April, the Blazers continued winning into May where they went 7-2 while collecting victories over Boston, Utah, the Los Angeles Lakers and Denver to finish 42-30 and capture sixth place in the Western Conference. That run earned Blazers coach Terry Stotts Western Conference Coach of the Month honors. This is the eighth time Stotts has received this award and the first time this season, his ninth with the franchise. Stotts is the 13th coach in NBA history to lead a franchise to the playoffs eight consecutive times since the 1970-71 season. Eastern Conference Coach of the Month went to New York's Tom Thibodeau.
