whattheywatch

Joe Mantegna of National Memorial Day Concert 2021 on PBS
 "One thing I've discovered is 'Schitt's Creek.' My daughter turned us onto it, and we almost binge-watched it. What's ironic is that the guy who did the pilot and a bunch of the early episodes was a director I'd worked with in Toronto many years ago."

Jessalyn Gilsig of "Big Shot" on Disney+
 "I just watched 'Last Chance U,' the basketball version. It's a documentary about East L.A. College, their basketball program, coached by a man named Coach Moseley. And it's just such a wonderful profile of these young men who - as Coach Moseley would sort of describe it - are threading the needle to try to access a four-year college education by using their basketball abilities."

Lisa Kudrow of "HouseBroken" on Fox
 "Over the pandemic, because I didn't see it the first time, I've discovered 'Everybody Loves Raymond.'"

Joel McHale of "Crime Scene Kitchen" on Fox
 "I'm watching 'Dark' on Netflix. It's a German time-travel show and I really enjoyed all three seasons of it. And I can't wait for 'The Boys' to come back on Amazon. That was one of my favorites. It's just insanely good. I think Jack Quaid is a star. Everyone on that show is great. I'm watching a lot of 'Bob's Burgers,' a lot of 'Rick & Morty' with my 13- and 16-year-old sons. They love 'The Good Place.' It's great."
