GYMNASTICS

Seven for Simone: Biles claims another US Gymnastics title — Simone Biles toned it down. A little anyway. And soared even higher. The 24-year-old gymnastics superstar claimed her record seventh U.S. title Sunday night, delivering another stunning — and stunningly easy — performance that served little doubt the pressure surrounding her bid to become the first woman to win back-to-back Olympic championships in more than 50 years is only pushing her to even greater heights. Shaking off a somewhat sloppy start Friday, at least by her impeccable standards, Biles put on a four-rotation showcase that highlighted why a GOAT emblem — a nod to her status as the Greatest Of All Time — has become a fixture on her competition leotard. Her two-day total of 119.650 was nearly five points better than runner-up Sunisa Lee and good friend and teammate Jordan Chiles. Biles' all-around score on Sunday of 60.100 was her highest since 2018 and served notice she is only getting better with the Tokyo Games less than seven weeks away.

TENNIS

Serena Williams loses at French Open; Federer withdraws — Serena Williams turns 40 in September. Roger Federer hits that milestone the month before. No one knows how many more French Open appearances each will make, and this year's tournament ended for both on Sunday. Williams fell way behind and could not put together a comeback against a much younger and less-experienced opponent in the fourth round at Roland Garros, losing 6-3, 7-5 to Elena Rybakina — who wasn't even born when the American made her tournament debut in 1998. Federer, meanwhile, never had pulled out of a Grand Slam tournament once he had started competing in it until now.

GOLF

Cantlay wins a playoff at Memorial on Sunday without Rahm — The emotion and intensity felt the same to Patrick Cantlay, whether it was his clutch 25-foot birdie putt to tie for the lead or his 12-foot par putt in a playoff that made him a winner again Sunday in the Memorial. The handshake with Jack Nicklaus? As special as it was two years ago. That was as far as normalcy was allowed to go at a tournament that was as much about the guy who won as the guy who didn't play. Plenty of drama. A little rain. No sign of Jon Rahm.

MOTOR SPORTS

Larson wins again as Hendrick continues month of dominance — Kyle Larson first visited Sonoma Raceway as a young kid dressed head-to-toe in Jeff Gordon gear watching NASCAR practice from the hillside on a Saturday afternoon. Now he's a Cup winner at what is considered the Elk Grove racer's home track, but his victory lane celebration Sunday was a disaster. Larson tried to recreate a 2014 photo of himself spitting wine into the air following a lower level win, but it was far windier after this big leagues victory and when Larson splashed his mouthful from the oversized chalice, the red wine splashed all over the new track president.
