Daily Bridge Club

Doing it right

By FRANK STEWART
Tribune Content Agency

If Cy the Cynic loses a makeable contract, he shrugs it off. He says you learn nothing by doing something right. In that case, Cy may be my club's most learned player.

At today's four spades, Cy took the ace of diamonds, thought for all of three seconds and led a heart to his jack and a heart to dummy's queen. East took the ace and returned a diamond to dislodge the king.

Cy next led a club to his ace and conceded a club. East won and led the ace and his low trump. When Cy won in dummy and threw his last club on the king of hearts, West ruffed. Down one.

clubs, you bid two diamonds and he tries two spades. What do you say?

ANSWER: Partner's new-suit bid of two spades is forcing. I would bid the obvious 2NT now. But since partner may not have spades for his "fourth-suit" two spades, some players would be reluctant to bid 2NT with no spade stopper. As to what they would do, you would need to ask them.
