SPORTS BRIEFING

BASKETBALL

Oregon men land commitment from Dior Johnson, nation's No. 3 overall recruit — Oregon has found its future floor general. Dior Johnson, a five-star prospect who is ranked as the nation's No. 1 point guard recruit in the class of 2022 — and No. 3 overall — according to 247Sports, announced his commitment to the Ducks Tuesday morning, spurning a reported $1.2 million offer to play professionally in the New Zealand Basketball League. The Saugerties, New York, native spent last season at Centennial High in Lakewood, California. According to 247Sports, Johnson becomes the second-highest-rated prospect to commit to the Oregon basketball program.

Portland Trail Blazers coaching search pushes on — The Portland Trail Blazers' coaching search has concluded week two with no new developments having leaked or been released. Coaching movement around the league, however, could have an impact on the Blazers' efforts to replace Terry Stotts, who departed the franchise on June 4. After a week of interviews, the search will head into a third weekend without a new coach. The key names reportedly still linked to the job remain Brooklyn assistant coach Mike D'Antoni, Los Angeles Clippers assistant Chauncey Billups and San Antonio assistant Becky Hammon.

Pistons win NBA draft lottery — The Detroit Pistons did a lot of losing this season, finishing with the second-worst record in the NBA and the franchise's worst record in nearly 30 years. It paid off. The Pistons won the NBA draft lottery on Tuesday night, grabbing the No. 1 pick in the July 29 draft. Houston will pick second, Cleveland will pick third, and Toronto will pick fourth. Orlando will get the No. 5 and No. 8 (from Chicago) selections, with Oklahoma City picking No. 6 and Golden State also with two lottery slots — No. 7, as part of a trade with Minnesota, and the Warriors' own pick at No. 14.

FOOTBALL

College Football Playoff presidents OK expansion evaluation — The 11 university presidents and chancellors who oversee the College Football Playoff authorized a continued evaluation of a proposed 12-team playoff on Tuesday that, if eventually adopted, could still be another five years away. The move by the CFP board of managers was a necessary step to determine the feasibility of tripling the size of the playoff field. The 12-team proposal was presented to the presidents and chancellors after the 11-person panel that manages the postseason system last week had its first meeting with everyone in person. CFP chairman and Mississippi State University President Mark Keenum said the next step is a summer review phase.

BASEBALL

Oregon State's Washburn enters transfer portal, will leave program — Oregon State is losing a potentially important piece from next year's pitching staff. Jack Washburn, a freshman right-hander who filled a variety of roles for the Beavers last season, has entered the transfer portal and plans to leave, coach Mitch Canham said. The son of former Major Leaguer Jarrod Washburn, Jack Washburn went 4-2 with a 3.12 ERA in 34½ innings last season.
