SPORTS BRIEFING

OLYMPICS

Stanford's Brody Malone wins U.S. men's gymnastics trials — Twenty-one-year-old Stanford junior and NCAA champion Brody Malone locked down a spot on the U.S. Olympic men's gymnastics team on Saturday, earning an automatic berth on the five-man team by capturing the Olympic Trials with a two-day all-around total of 171.600. Yul Moldauer, the 2017 national champion and a three-time world championship team member, is heading to Tokyo next month too after finishing runner-up to Malone while also ranking in the top three on four events. Sam Mikulak reached his third Olympics after being named to the team by the selection committee. Shane Wiskus was also named. Alec Yoder earned the "plus-one" specialist spot. Day 2 of the women's competition ended after The Bulletin's press deadline. Simone Biles had a commanding lead after Friday night's events.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Ducks' LB Slade-Matautia to transfer out — Oregon's leader in career tackles is transferring. Isaac Slade-Matautia, a fourth-year junior who tied for the team lead with 45 tackles for the Ducks last season, announced he is entering the transfer portal. Slade-Matautia also had 3.5 tackles for loss with a sack last season along with five pass breakups. Slade-Matautia's departure all but ensures that second-year freshman and former five-star recruit Justin Flowe will become the starter.

GOLF

Nelly Korda, Lizette Salas pull away from field at Women's PGA — Lizette Salas had a third straight 5-under 67 and Nelly Korda had a 68 to finish Saturday's third round of the Women's PGA Championship tied for the lead at 15-under 201, five shots clear of anyone else, at the Atlanta Athletic Club. Two very different games ultimately led to the same score. The one commonality is both are chasing their first major championship Sunday. At stake for Korda is a chance to reach No. 1 in the world.

Hickock, Watson ahead at Travelers Championship — Kramer Hickock shot a 2-under 68 on Saturday to tie for the lead with three-time winner Bubba Watson. Hickock, who has never won on the PGA Tour, opened a two-stroke lead before bogeying the final two holes. Watson shot a 68 at the TPC River Highlands, picking up three strokes on Hickock over the final two holes. Jason Day was in a three-way tie at minus-9.
