Daily Bridge Club Focus on the field

By FRANK STEWART Tribune Content Agency

Friday, July 2, 2021

The incomparable investor Warren returns to three hearts. What d Buffett (who also happens to be an avid and capable bridge player) observed that games are won by players who focus on the field, not on the scoreboard.

Today's West led the seven of t clubs against six hearts, and South to must have been focused only on writing down plus 1,430 on his s scorecard. He took the ace of clubs and started the trumps. West won and led another club, East ruffed and South had to inscribe minus 100 instead.

ADVICE

South should have taken Buffett's advice. Since only a club ruff can defeat the slam, South must guard against it. He takes his ace of spades at Trick Two, cashes the ace of diamonds and ruffs his low diamond with the eight of trumps.

Declarer then discards his last club on the king of spades and leads a trump to his king. West wins and is helpless. If he leads another club, South and a spades another club, South can overruff when East ruffs and draw trumps. If West leads a third diamond, South can ruff with dummy's jack of trumps safely.

DAILY QUESTION

You hold:  $\bigstar$  A  $\heartsuit$  K Q 10 9 7 ♦ A K Q J 6 ♣ 10 3. You open one heart, your partner bids one spade, you jump to three diamonds and he couldn't pass even with a minimum responding hand. You can just g to four hearts now and leave the read to your partner, or perhaps bid fou diamonds, but you should make n strong move.
