“Movie: The Artist”

This best-picture Oscar winner is an affectionate tribute to movie history, with director Michel Hazanavicius going so far as to make it a silent film. Jean Dujardin also earned a statuette as an actor who fears what the dawn of talking pictures may mean for his career — and who falls for a chorus girl (Berenice Bejo) whose star is rising. John Goodman also stars.

“Movie: Raiders: The Story of the Greatest Fan Film Ever Made”

This 2015 documentary from first-time filmmakers Jeremy Coon and Tim Skousen tells the story of three childhood friends — Chris Stropoulos, Eric Zala and Jayson Lamb — who spent their teen years doing their own remake of their favorite movie, the 1981 actioner “Raiders of the Lost Ark,” a production they wound up finishing as adults.

“Movie: The Keeping Room”

From director Daniel Barber (“Harry Brown”) comes this 2014 Western about three women who must fight to defend themselves and their homes from two rogue soldiers who broke off from the advancing Union Army in the waning days of the Civil War. Brit Marling, Hailee Steinfeld, Muna Otaru and Sam Worthington head the cast.

“Movie: Mood Indigo”

From French filmmaker Michel Gondry (“Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind”) comes this surreal 2013 comedy drama about a young inventor (Romain Duris, “The Spanish Apartment”) who seeks a cure for his lover (Audrey Tautou, “Coco Before Chanel”), who is afflicted with an unusual disease caused by a flower growing in her lungs. Gad Elmaleh, Omar Sy and Charlotte Le Bon also star.

Checking in with ALEXANDRA DADDARIO

At a time when the coronavirus pandemic was limiting work options for many performers, a stay at “The White Lotus” looked quite good to Alexandra Daddario.

The cast and crew of HBO and HBO Max’s current Sunday series created their own “bubble” by largely taking over a Hawaiian resort for the two months of filming writer-director Mike White’s comedy, about a Maui hotel’s staff and the diverse guests they service. “Baywatch” and “Percy Jackson” movie co-star Daddario plays a newlywed who develops second thoughts about the marriage, with Jake Lacy as her worried husband and Molly Shannon as his meddling mother. The ensemble cast also includes Steve Zahn, Connie Britton and Jennifer Coolidge.

“Everybody has their own thing” happening in the show, the friendly Daddario confirms. “Each story is as important as the others, and they all intersect. That was great for all of us, because we all had our down time. And on the set, I always felt that I was doing something that was meaty. You weren’t just waiting around. Everyone was shooting their own little movie.”

Daddario particularly enjoyed acting with “Saturday Night Live” alum Shannon, with whom she also worked in the William H. Macy-directed 2017 movie “The Layover.” Deeming her “a delightful person,” Daddario says simply, “She’s Molly Shannon! She’s a legend. Like in a tennis match, it’s always better to have somebody who makes you better.”

However, notes Daddario, “You’re not going to be funnier acting with Molly Shannon. She’s always going to be the funniest, but when you feel the scene being uplifted by her, it helps. I wish I could be as funny as she is.”
