Both made pars on the 18th in the playoff, with Riley saving par from a front bunker. Neither looked to be in great birdie position on the 16th until Burns’ putt caught the left edge and went 180 degrees around the cup before falling in the back side. Riley hit a strong pitch needing to hole it to extend the playoff and missed long.

Justin Thomas (70) and Matthew NeSmith (71) finished a shot out of the playoff.

Also Sunday:

EUROPEAN TOUR/SUNSHINE TOUR: JOHANNESBURG, South Africa — Shaun Norris of South Africa lost a four-shot lead in the final round and then rallied at the end to close with a 2-under 70 to hold off Dean Burmester in the Steyn City Championship for his first European Tour title.

Burmester stormed into the lead with a birdie on the par-5 sixth and then an eagle on the par-4 seventh, and stretched his lead to two shots with a birdie on the 10th.

Norris answered with three birdies on his next six holes, and they were tied going to the 17th. Norris made a fourth birdie on the back nine as Burmester took double bogey, and the three-shot swing gave Norris some breathing room going to the last.

Norris finished at 25-under 263 for his 10th world-wide title.

Burmester closed with a 69. The tournament also was sanctioned by the Sunshine Tour.

KORN FERRY TOUR:

BROUSSARD, La. — Carl Yuan of China won the Chitimacha Louisiana Open for his first Korn Ferry Tour title, beating Peter Uihlein with a 12-foot birdie putt on the first hole of a playoff.

Yuan closed with a 6-under 65 to match Uihlein at 14-under 270 at Le Triomphe Golf and Country Club. Uihlein shot a 70.

Jose de Jesus Rodriguez (68) and Trevor Werbylo (70) were a stroke back.

OTHER TOURS: Fatima Fernandez Cano of Spain won the Carlisle Arizona Women’s Golf Classic in Mesa for her second career Epon Tour victory. She shot an 11-under 61 at Longbow in the third round and closed with a 70 to finish at 17-under 271. As an LPGA Tour member and non-member of the Epon Tour, Fernandez Cano isn’t eligible to qualify for the Race for the Card. Dani Holmqvist (66), Sofia Garcia (68) and Laura Restrepo (72) were three strokes back. ... Former Women’s British Open champion Georgia Hall closed with a 1-under 71 for a five-shot victory in the Aramco Saudi Ladies International on the Ladies European Tour. Kristyna Napoleaova of Czech Republic and Johanna Gustavsson each shot 70 to tie for second. ... Harrison Crowe, a 20-year-old Australian amateur, shot a 4-under 67 and held on for a one-shot victory over Blake Windred in the New South Wales Open on the PGA Tour of Australasia.

Two double-digit seeds in the Sweet 16 already matches the record that’s been accomplished a few times. And there’s a chance for a few more to win Monday to break the mark when the regional semifinals field is completed.

Creighton was able to pull off its win thanks in part to sophomore Lauren Jensen, who transferred from Iowa after her freshman year. She scored 19 points, including a 3-pointer with 12 seconds left that gave the Bluejays the lead for good.

“I’ve gotten the question a lot,” Creighton coach Jim Flanery said. “How is Lauren going to feel today, what’s Lauren going to play like, da da da?” Those last few minutes had to be magical and special, and we’re super proud of her and we’re super proud that she’s part of our program.”

While Creighton needed last-minute heroics from Jensen, South Dakota took it right at Baylor and never let up. The Coyotes’ 14-point road win was the largest by a 10-seed over a No. 2 according to STATS.

Here are a few other tidbits from Sunday’s games:

Showing up

An average of 6,449 fans came to first-round games this year, including a sellout crowd of 14,382 at Carver Arena in Iowa. The Hawkeyes also sold out their second-round game against Creighton.

“To get that many people into a gym to watch women’s sports, I think that’s huge,” Iowa center Monika Czinano said.
