“David Spade: Nothing Personal”
The “Saturday Night Live” alum and comic makes his Netflix comedy debut with this stand-up special filmed in January at the Pantages Theatre in Minneapolis, in which he shares his disdain for crabs and his unique approach to turning down drugs — thus proving that no topic is off limits. (ORIGINAL)

“Movie: Silverton Siege”
From South Africa comes this actioner that’s based on actual events in 1980, in which three young freedom fighters took hostages inside a bank to exchange for the release of Nelson Mandela. Thabo Rametsi (“Amandla”), Arnold Vosloo (“The Harrowing”) and Noxolo Dlamini (“Liberty”) head the cast for director Mandlakayise Dube (“Kalushi: The Story of Solomon Mahlangu”). (ORIGINAL)

“The 7 Lives of Lea”
This French crime drama series stars newcomer Raika Hazanavicius as the title character, a young woman who after finding a man’s dead body, wakes up in the 1990s and body-swaps seven times to solve the mystery of his death as well as prevent it. Khalil Gharbia, Marguerite Thiam and Maira Schmitt also star. (ORIGINAL)

“Grace and Frankie”
The second half of the seventh and final season of this comedy series explores the further adventures of the titular duo played by Jane Fonda and Lily Tomlin as they continue to show themselves and their families what it means to fearlessly and unapologetically live life to the fullest. Martin Sheen, Sam Waterston, Ethan Embry and June Diane Raphael also return. (ORIGINAL)
