Cascades 10 returns to Cascades Theatre in Bend

BY DAVID JASPER • The Bulletin

After two years of disruption due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Cascades Theatrical Company will once again present Cascades 10 at Cascades Theatre in Bend.

The community theater's popular production was only a few years old when COVID-19 reared its ugly head. First staged in 2017, Cascades 10 quickly established itself as a charming, must-see, blink-and-you-miss-it event — a collection of several original, 10-minute plays written, directed and performed by local talent. In 2020, the pandemic forced a move to an outdoor venue down the way from CTC's home on Greenwood Avenue. Last year, it didn't happen period.
