GONE COUNTRY!

Four concerts by four artists will appeal to fans of twangy music

BY BEN SALMON • For The Bulletin

Before the COVID-19 pandemic, concerts by country musicians were few and far between in Central Oregon. The Deschutes County Fair hosted a couple each summer, but larger venues in Bend like the Midtown Ballroom and what was then known as Les Schwab Amphitheater focused their efforts on other genres, and other than some one-offs here and there, the region didn't offer much true country from year to year.
