

Contest for a Petrified Man.

Duluth, July 27—Louis Le Counte who was murdered on the prairies near this place, back in the 40s, seems doomed to have no rest even after the grave closed upon him.

Some weeks ago Le Counte's grave was discovered by accident in Northern Minnesota, and the body was exhumed. It was found to be completely petrified and the exhumers started out to exhibit it as a curiosity in the Red River valley country. The owner of the farm on which the body was found brought suit and had it replevined. Then they had it kept in a cell in the Polk county jail for three days and guarded by armed men. Bonds were finally given by the exhumers and the latter took the petrification across into North Dakota.

A few days ago the sons of the dead man, Emabile and Antoine Le Counte of Red Lake Falls, Minn., went to Fargo with a warrant, charging the exhumers with grave-robbery. The Dakota authorities failed to promptly observe the requisition of the Minnesota governor and during the delay George Holmes, the owner of 40 per cent of the freak, became involved in a dispute with McPherrin, who owned the rest of it, and the latter shipped the petrification away during the night and ran it over to Winnipeg. Holmes and the Le Countes have gone to Winnipeg to fight for the body.

Much Ado About—Nothing.

A certain prince of Orange was generalissimo of the Austrians at the end of the last century. He fought against the French in Italy, died, and was buried at Padua [1799]. For four years the Dutch government has been in treaty for the prince's remains and after an endless amount of diplomatic negotiations and correspondence matters were arranged, a Dutch man-of-war arrived in Venice, and, after another three weeks' delay, surmounting the last difficulties raised by the church and red tape of the Italian government, last Thursday was the day fixed for opening the tomb and convey the remains to Venice, to be transported by the man-of-war and ultimately deposited in the family vault at Delft.

It was a most impressive ceremony. A representative of the queen of Holland came expressly. Admirals, generals, officials galore, special trains, funeral car, troops lining the way, minute guns and flags half mast high, and then the tomb was opened and contained—nothing.—London Truth.

An Affidavit.

This is to certify that on May 11 I walked to Melick's drug store on a pair of crutches and bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm for inflammatory rheumatism which had crippled me up. After using three bottles I am completely cured. I can cheerfully recommend it—Charles H. Weizel, Sunbury, Pa.

Sworn and subscribed to before me on August 10, 1894.—Walter Shipman, J. P. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by druggists.

PILES

BIG PROFITS SMALL INVESTMENTS.

Returning prosperity will make many rich, but nowhere can they make so much within a short time as by successful Speculation in Grain Provisions and Stock.

$10.00 FOR EACH DOLLAR INVESTED CAN BE MADE BY OUR Systematic Plan of Speculation

originated by us. All successful speculators operate on a regular system. It is a well-known fact that there are thousands of men in all parts of the United States who, by systematic trading through Chicago brokers, make large amounts every year, ranging from a few thousand dollars for the man who invests a hundred or two dollars up to $50,000 to $100,000 or more by those who invest a few thousand.

It is also a fact that those who make the largest profits from comparatively small investments on this plan are persons who live away from Chicago and invest through brokers who thoroughly understand systematic trading.

Our plan does not risk the whole amount invested on any trade, but covers both sides, so that whether the market rises or falls it brings a steady profit that piles up enormously in a short time.

WRITE FOR CONVINCING PROOFS, also our Manual on successful speculation and our Daily Market Report, full of money making pointers. ALL FREE. Our manual explains margin trading fully. Highest references in regard to our standing and success. For further information address
