—Geo. McGowan, once in the mercantile business in this place, but now of Monmouth, we understand was burned out a short time since. He was insured, but to what amount we have not been informed.

MARRIED.—At the First Presbyterian church in this place, yesterday evening, at 8 o'clock, Henry W. Welcome and Miss Francis Jewett were united in marriage. Judge Rutherford, assisted by Rev. J. H. Jones, performed the ceremony. A large crowd of friends of the bride and groom were present to witness and congratulate the happy couple, with whom THE TIMES-HERALD heartily joins.

—Rev. D. H. Jones will deliver a lecture on "Christianity and Infidelity," from the Christian standpoint, on Sunday evening, the 27th inst. Mr. Jones has devoted many years of his life to a careful study of the principles involved in this most important subject, and will no doubt handle it in a scholarly and logical manner. For the past eighteen centuries this subject has furnished food for thought of the ablest thinkers and philosophers of the race; and as long as mankind exists on the face of the earth, the members of the human family will be interested in investigations touching the problem of a hereafter and will never cease enquiring, what shall become of this "teniment of clay," or the divine spark within it? when the portals of the grave closes upon the remains of a human being. Everyone should hear Mr. Jones on this subject.

From the tenor of republican comment, we are to suppose that his support of the gold standard has purified the morals of Col. Breckinridge.

The two populists who gave Mr. Palmer a seat in the U. S. Senate in a promise made in his behalf, that he would vote for the free coinage of silver, might be excused for asking if any promises were made for him at Indianapolis.

The Thrice-a-week World is not only much larger than any weekly or semi-weekly newspaper, but it furnishes the news with much greater frequency and promptness. In fact it combines all the crisp, fresh qualities of a daily with the attractive special features of a weekly.

Arrangements have been made by which we can furnish this paper and the Thrice-a-Week New York World both for $2.25 a year. Take advantage of this offer as I get your own local paper and the Thrice-a-Week World at this special rate.
