

Additional Locals.

—David Cary and family returned from a visit to Willamette Sunday afternoon.

—H. A. Williams, contractor, on the Ontario-Burns mail route, died at Ontario last Sunday morning.

—Among Burns visitors, we have noticed since our last issue. Messrs. French, Mahon, Darst, Prof. Newell and Chas. Peterson.

—Captain Waters and wife returned last Saturday after an absence of four months, visiting friends and relatives in Oregon and California.

—The sad news has been received here of the death of Mrs. Clara Wickliffe. She died in Cedarville, California, on the evening of Sept. 29th, and was buried the 30th. We have not yet been informed of the particulars regarding her illness and demise. Mrs. Wickliffe was born and raised in this place and was married to Mr. Wickliffe last March. The news of her death is received with great sorrow by her friends.

BORN.—To Mr. and Mrs. Austin Goodman on Monday, the 5th inst., a fine boy. Mr. Goodman resides at the Warm Springs four miles south of Burns; his father came here when Austin was a small boy and our valley has a claim on him, but his wife was born and raised in this valley, consequently Harney county has full claim and birth-right possession of the mother and her first born, and as such has with delight the advent of the little stranger.

Huntington, Ore., March 21, 1896

DEAR SIR:—We are now starting in the new year. Computations for last year are completed. We find that our firm sold during 1895 the enormous amount of 167 carloads of goods, equal to ten train loads—just think 167 cars—For this we thank our patrons, and promise the same generous treatment in the future. During 1896 we will sell closer than ever, and no honest competitors will be allowed to do more for you than ourselves. We are here for your business, we must have it, if honest count, weight, and treatment and Low prices will do it. Call or write us.

Respt.,
O. C. Co

NEW YORK WORLD.

The Twice-a-week Edition of the New York World has been converted into the Thrice-a-week. It furnishes 3 papers of 6 pages apiece, or eighteen pages every week, at the old price of One Dollar a year. This gives 156 paper a year for One Dollar and every paper has 6 pages eight columns wide or 48 columns in all. The Thrice-a-week World is not only much larger than any weekly or semi-weekly newspaper, but it furnishes the news with much greater frequency and promptness. In fact it combines all the crisp, fresh qualities of a daily with the attractive special features of a weekly.

Arrangements have been made by which we can furnish this paper and the Thrice-a-Week New York World both for $2.25 a year. Take advantage of this offer and get your own local paper and the Thrice-a-Week World at this special rate.
