Huntington, Ore., March 21, 1896.

DEAR SIR:—We are now starting in the new year. Computations for last year are completed. We find that our firm sold during 1895 the enormous amount of 167 carloads of goods, equal to ten train loads—just think 167 cars—For this we thank our patrons, and promise the same generous treatment in the future. During 1896 we will sell closer than ever, and no honest competitors will be allowed to do more for you than ourselves. We are here for your business, we must have it, if honest count, weight, and treatment and low prices will do it. Call or write us
