

In Foul Cuban Dungeons.

Havana, Oct. 9.—Weyler is fooling Lee. The order prohibiting the American consul-general from visiting the military prison keeps him from personally investigating the condition of Americans imprisoned there. He has to rely upon what Weyler tells him. In their last interview General Lee complained of the unsanitary condition of the cells the American prisoners were in. Weyler replied boldly:

"Oh, I have attended to this matter. They have been removed to cells Nos. 41 and 42."

General Lee retired flattered at his supposed success, not knowing the Americans have always occupied cells Nos. 41 and 42.

Those cells, by the way, are gloomy and so damp that water oozes from the ceilings and trickles down the walls, wetting the floor, which never dries. In one of these wretched cells are Melton, the American newspaper man, and George Aguirre, locked up with a man suffering from small-pox. The disagreement between Weyler and Lee continues, the arrested Americans suffering the consequences.

Six weeks ago I suffered with a very severe cold; was almost unable to speak. My friends all advised me to consult apysician. Noticing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised in the St. Paul Volks Zeitung I procured a bottle, and after taking it a short while was entyrelly well. I now most heartily recommend this remedy to anyone suffering with a cold. Wm. Keil, 678 Selby Ave., St. Paul, Minn. For sale by An Affidavit.

This is to certify that on May 11 I walked to Melick's drug store on a pair of crutches and bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm for inflammatory rheumatism which had crippled me up. After using three bottles I am completely cured. I can cheerfully recommend it—Charles H. Wetzel, Sunbury, Pa.

TO OUR FRIENDS AND PATRONS:

We take pleasure in announcing that we are now located in our new quarters, a handsome two story stone building, which we have erected on the site of our old stand which will give us ample room to handle our rapidly increasing stock and business.

It is with pardonable pride we refer to the cause and incidents necessitating the seeking of our present enlarged quarters. For notwithstanding the present depression in the general business of the country, by our reasonable prices, strict integrity, upright business methods and prompt attention to the wants of our trade, our volume of business has actually doubled through the kind and liberal patronage of our friends in the short period of the last year and we have been forced to build more commodious quarters. We take this opportunity to thank you individually and collectively for your esteemed confidence which has built up our business to be the largest in the county without except'on, and we sincerely believe that the benefit of this large intercourse of trade has been truly mutual between our valued patrons and ourselves, and you may rest assured that the same reciprocal and honest business methods will be pursued in the future as has been exercised in the past.

We bespeak your future patronage, and if fidelity to your interests and faithful execution of your wishes will accomplish it our mutual relations will be more pleasant in the future than in the past, and we expect your business because we will save you money.

Yours sincerely,

N. BROWN & SONS.

COUGHS and COLDS

ELY'S PINEOLA BALSAM is a sure Remedy for coughs, colds, sore throat and for asthma. It soothes, quickly abates the cough, and renders expectoration easy.

Consumptives will invariably derive benefit from its use. Many who suppose their cases to be consumption are only suffering from a chronic cold or deep seated cough, often aggravated by catarrh. For catarrh use Ely's Cream Balm. Both remedies are pleasant to use. Cream Balm, 50 cts. per bottle; Pineola Balsam, 50c. Sold by Druggists. ELY BROTHERS, 66 Warren St., New York.
