Notice.

Parties knowing themselves indebted to H. M. Horton are requested to call and settle before the 1st of November.

Surely a Mistake.

The news of Mrs. Clara Wickliffe's death, received here last week, of which THE TIMES-HERALD made mention, is surely a mistake. Mr. M. Fitzgerald received a letter from Mr. Wickliffe, dated October 7th, and nothing whatever was said in regard to the death of Mrs. W. and on comparing the handwriting with former letters received by Miss Bessie Stenger from her sister, it was found, beyond a doubt, to be Clara's handwriting. There was no mention of the lady's death in a Cedarville paper of the 2d inst., and Miss Bessie is at a loss to account for the letter announcing her (Clara's) death.

Hanna would better leave the talking to McKinley, who is an adept at talking without saying anything.

The Chinese government may not know much about the successful conduct of a war, but the disbanding of an organization of Chinamen in the United States under the threat that all their relations in China would be killed if they didn't, shows it to be away up in the art of suppression.
