

LETTER FROM THE POPS.

Manifesto Issued by Jones and His Advisers.

CONTINUED FROM FIFTH PAGE.

The patriotic action of the people's party in forming and supporting these joint electoral tickets has shattered all this. Already they are alarmed at the impotency of boodle campaign, when all of the great moral forces of the people are solidly united in the defense of American institutions. The revolution of the American people against bold campaign during the last 10 days has so united them that victory is now assured. The People's party made this revolution possible. Let every one do his duty and fail not. Let our boast be that we are American citizens, and that American citizens are more than partisans. This done, the cohorts of domestic and foreign greed will be driven from our legislative councils and the domination of American institutions. This done, and the betrayed republic will be rejoiced and American prosperity restored. The men and party that achieve such grand and patriotic results in this crisis will be the men and the party of the future. It has been left for the People's party to make the party sacrifice and do the patriotic work necessary to accomplish this result. The People's party must do it; for no other party will; the People's party will do it. Therefore, the People's party will be the party of the future. The American people will recognize it as the agency that saved the day when their interests were at stake. The American people will rally around its banner as the party to contend against the enemy of good government in the future. Every man to his post, and the victory is won.

MARION BUTLER, Chairman.

The following also signed it: J. R. Sovereign, H. W. Reed, George F. Washburn, John W. Breidenthal, M. C. Rankin, C. F. Taylor and J. A. Edgerton, the secretary.

Six weeks ago I suffered with a very severe cold; was almost unable to speak. My friends all advised me to consult apysician. Noticing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised in the St. Paul Volks Zeitung I procured a bottle, and after taking it a short while was entyrelly well. I now most heartily recommend this remedy to anyone suffering with a cold. WM. KEIL, 678 Selby Ave., St. Paul, Minn. For sale by An Affidavit.

This is to certify that on May 11 I walked to Melick's drug store on a pair of crutches and bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm for inflammatory rheumatism which had crippled me up. After using three bottles I am completely cured. I can cheerfully recommend it—Charles H. Wetzel, Sunbury, Pa.

It may also be a pleasure if you buy your Groceries from us. Everything is fresh, pure and wholesome in our stock. Otherwise it would not find a place here. The values are fully as satisfactory, for although we pride ourselves on the quality of our groceries, we also quote prices that are no higher than you would have to pay for inferior qualities. A great increase in our business last year in this department and continued growth this year shows that people who give us a trial become permanent customers.
