—Sheep men of Crook county and cattle men of Grant are still having trouble. The latest we see regarding it is some sheep men moved in on some territory, forbidden by the cattlemen, when 14 of the latter visited the sheep camp, relieved the herder of his gun, very pointedly told him he was trespassing and that it was no longer healthy for him and his herd in that locality, the whole party fired into the sheep killing and maiming 200 or 250, burned the herders camp outfit and departed, with the promise if he didn't leave immediately they would soon return.

The court house was crowded last Friday evening with a critical and fashionable audience congregated to listen to one of the grandest solo concerts ever inaugurated in Canyon City. A resume of the whole program would occupy too much space. We can say that every number was artistically and well rendered by the participants. The interest naturally centered in the beneficiary, Mrs. Anna Hope Jones. Her rich mezzo soprano delighted her audience, as was evidenced by the hearty recalls and applause bestowed. All who attended were pleased with the entertainment.—Canyon News.
