Montreal Threatened.

Montreal, Oct. 29.—Montreal is threatened with a disaster even worse than that of the Johnstown flood, owing to the present condition of the reservoirs on Mount Royal, overlooking the city. The big basins have been leaking badly for years, and the leaks have been increasing rapidly. The authorities of McGill university, which is situated just below the reservoirs, have communicated with the city officials, pointing out the danger and notifying the city that it would be held responsible for $1,000,000 damage in the event of a break.

The reservoirs hold over 20,000,000 gallons of water and experts say that unless repairs are made at once the walls of the reservoirs will give way and a terrible disaster result. The masonry wall is only 10 feet thick, and once it is thoroughly honeycombed and gives way the earth backing it will not hold the immense body of water. The effect would simply be the obliteration of a wide belt of the city from the reservoir to the Lachine canal and river, and the whole of the lowlying part of the city would be flooded. The mayor has given orders to have the necessary repairs made at once.

COUGHS and COLDS

ELY'S PINEOLA BALSAM is a sure Remedy for coughs, colds, sore throat and for asthma. It soothes, quickly abates the cough, and renders expectoration easy. Consumptives will invariably derive benefit from its use. Many who suppose their cases to be consumption are only suffering from a chronic cold or deep-seated cough, often aggravated by catarrh. For catarrh use Ely's Cream Balm. Both remedies are pleasant to use. Cream Balm, 50 cts. per bottle; Pineola Balsam, 25c. Sold by Druggists. ELY BROTHERS, 50 Warren St., New York.

Six weeks ago I was a very severe cold; was almost unable to speak. My friends all advised me to consult a physician. Noticing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised in the St. Paul Volks Zeitung I procured a bottle, and after taking it a short while was entirely well. I now most heartily recommend this remedy to anyone suffering with a cold. WM. KEIL, 678 Selby Ave., St. Paul, Minn. For sale by
