Huntington, Ore., March 21, 1896.
DEAR SIR:—We are now starting in the new year. Computations for last year are completed. We find that our firm sold during 1895 the enormous amount of 167 carloads of goods, equal to ten train loads—just think 167 cars—For this we thank our patrons, and promise the same generous treatment in the future. During 1896 we will sell closer than ever, and no honest competitors will be allowed to do more for you than ourselves. We are here for your business, we must have it, if honest count, weight, and treatment and Low prices will do it. Call or write us.

NEW YORK WORLD.

The Twice-a-week Edition of the New York World has been converted into the Thrice-a-week. It furnishes 3 papers of 6 pages apiece, or eighteen pages every week, at the old price of One Dollar a year. This gives 156 paper a year for One Dollar and every paper has 6 pages eight columns wide or 48 columns in all. The Thrice-a-week World is not only much larger than any weekly or semi-weekly newspaper, but it furnishes the news with much greater frequency and promptness. In fact it combines all the crisp, fresh qualities of a daily with the attractive special features of a weekly.

Arrangements have been made by which we can furnish this paper and the Thrice-a-Week New York World both for $2.25 a year. Take advantage of this offer and get your own local paper and the Thrice-a-Week World at this special rate.
