—The Associated Press has announced positively that Mr. McKinley has tendered the state portfolio to John Sherman, of Ohio, and that he has accepted and will be premier of the incoming administration.

—Frank Johnson left for Grass Valley, where he will enter the academy at that place. Frank is a steady young man and his many friends will wish him success at the school.—Prineville Review.

—It is reported the O. C. & E. R. R. Company have made contracts with the sawmills up the Santiam for 600,000,000 feet of lumber and timber the coming year, an indication of the extension of the road, if it proves true.

—A person going by the name of Hayes forged several small checks in Heppner last week. He left town before being apprehended. He is described as follows: Light complexion, medium height, weight about 170 pounds, wore a common suit, brown in color, soft brown hat, light sandy mustache; had a respectable appearance, hands soft, and looked very little like a laboring man.

—If it could be so arranged that every newspaper editor in Oregon could be a member of the legislature, what a grand thing it would be for the state. All useless commissions would be abolished instantly, a United States senator would be elected on the first ballot, oppressive laws would be repealed, and all needed legislation could be passed in a few days.—Vale Gazette.

DEAR SIR:—We are now starting in the new year. Computations for last year are completed. We find that our firm sold during 1895 the enormous amount of 167 carloads of goods, equal to ten train loads—just think 167 cars—For this we thank our patrons, and promise the same generous treatment in the future. During 1896 we will sell closer than ever, and no honest competitors will be allowed to do more for you than ourselves. We are here for your business, we must have it, if honest count, weight, and treatment and low prices will do it. Call or write us.
