A Peculiar Proceeding.

The Democratic Times plant, at Jacksonville, including the realty. presses, fixtures, etc., used in connection with the Times Printing house was sold at execution sale Saturday by Sheriff Barnes, the purchaser being C. W. Kahler, the judgment creditor, and the price $2250. The sheriff's notice of the sale which has been published for the last four weeks included in the property to be sold, in addition to, the two story Times building, "all printing presses, engines, type and machinery therein and belonging to said Times printing office, including the desks, safe tables, stoves and office furniture."

Notwithstanding, it seems that in the early hours of C ristmas morn ng a force of men and teams moved building, formerly occupied as a er cannot help but see the advansaloon, taking out the presses, tyre and other fixtures from the old ffice building and carring them to the new, completely gutting the Times tulling Thus having chosen a nor judicial day on which to move, injunction proceedings could not be instituted to prevent it, and to further complicate the matter it is said that early on Sat. world for bowel urday morning three separate bills acts quickly and can always be of sale to sep: rare parties were exe. depended upon.
