The wife of an old toper at Marshfield concluded to frighten her wayward husband a few evenings ago by arraying herself in a frightful apparel and when her boozy husband entered the door she said in a deep sepulchral tone: "Come with me; I am the devil." His reply was "Zat Sho? Shak"; I'm your brother-in-law I married your sister." Some one has figured out the occupation of the members of the legislature and reports as follows: There are 31 farmers, 2 horticulturists, 1 stockraiser, 2 cannerymen, 5 manufacturers, 1 banker, 2 capitalists, 3 teachers, 11 merchants, 1 conductor, 1 surveyor, 17 lawyers, 4 doctors, 1 brewer, 2 ministers and 1 elder. The author of this might change his slate and class about 30 of them as do nothings.—Ex. Walter Wyland, who was in the county jail at Canyon for larceny of a horse and saddle, escaped one night last week, by sawing off the bolts that held the casing of the door. He was found on Beach creek and again taken into custody by Chas. Wood. When Sheriff Livingston came upon the scene Wyland took a razor from his pocket and made three attempts to cut his throat before he could be stopped. Dr. Ashford was summoned and fixed him up and he is doing very well. When asked why he attempted to take his life he replied that he promised the sheriff that if he would not put him in the iron cell he would not try to escape. Now that he had violated his word he did not want to see Mr. Livingston again and would rather die than return to jail.

A Washington state editor appeals to his subscribers in this unique manner: "If you have frequent headaches, dizziness and fainting spells, accompanied with chills, chilblains epilepsy and jaundice, it is a sign that you are not well, and likely to die at any minute. Pay your subscription a year in advance and thus make yourself solid for a good obituary notice." A Success. The entertainment given by the kindergarten and primary department of the public school last Saturday evening was pronounced a success by all. The program was well rendered and the performance speaks well for their instructress. It would be an injustice to the children who took part to make special mention of any one. The house was crowded and the audience showed their appreciation by vigorously applauding. We have not been informed as to the amount of receipts. School Report.
