-Jorgensen has the finest and best lot of goods that ever came to Burns; go and see for yourself. He is also taking Cabinet Photos. at $3 per dozen. Do not forget to go and see what he has on hand. -The losses of the sufferers by the fire in Baker City last Wednesday, are as follows: Mrs. J. P. Faull, owner of the City Restaurant building, $1000; no insurance. S. M. Beck, contents of the restaurant $600; fully insured. Mrs. R. E. Byam, milliner, stock damaged by water, $250, no insurance Terry & Fleetwood, proprietors of the Hub grocery store, stock damaged by water, $500; fully insured. Four portly gentlemen of Pendleton Wednesday engaged in a dispute as to which was the heaviest. Alex Drysdale swore he could tip the scales at more than any of the others. W. F. Matlock averred that he was heavier than any of them, while Charles Frazier and George Hartman set up similar claims. It was finally agreed to settle it. Matlock stepped on the scales and weighed exactly 218 pounds. Drysdale was next and the scales were not changed a notch for him, for he weighed exactly 218 pounds. Hartman was next and again it was unnecessary to change the scales, as he weighed exactly 218 pounds. Frazier was next and he weighed exactly 226 pounds, beating the others eight pounds and winning the best 5 cent cigar in town, which was the size of the wager each one had made, winner to get one cigar from each one of the defeated ones.

Oregon Leads The World.
Wm. Henry Maule, a seedman of Philadelphia, offered 27 premiums for best specimens of various kinds of vegetables raised in 1896 in the United States, Mexico and Canada. Of these 27 premiums the states that took the largest number were New York 4, Pennsylvania 4 and Oregon 5. Of Oregon's five premiums four were from Union county—as many from this county as from any other single state on this continent. Oregon's five premiums were $50 each to Wm. Dobbs, Union; J. Frazier, Mrs. E. S. Duffy and Sitas Carter, New Bridge (three in Eagle valley;) and $50 to J. R. Douglas, Albany.

Notice.
The boarding house of Mrs. Belle Geer, has the reputation of being first class in every particular, and Mrs. Geer is determined that her house shall not lose its present standing, but by every means in her power will endeavor to increase its popularity. One meal at her table is convincing proof of her cuisine ability.

From U.S. Journal of Medicine
Prof. W. H. Feeke, who makes a specialty of Epilepsy, has without doubt treated and cured more cases than any living Physician; his success is astonishing. We have heard of cases of 20 years' standing cured by him. He publishes valuable work on this disease, which he sends with a large bottle of his absolute cure, free to any sufferers who may send their P. O. and Express address. We advise any one wishing a cure to address Prof. W. H. FEEKE, F. D., 4 Cedar St., New York

COUGHS and COLDS

ELY'S PINEOLA BALSAM is a sure remedy for coughs, colds, sore throat and for asthma. It soothes, quickly silences the cough, and renders expectoration easy.

Consumptives will invariably derive benefit from its use. Many who suppose their cases to be consumption are only suffering from a chronic cold or deep seated cough, often aggravated by catarrh. For catarrh use Ely's Cream Balm. Both remedies are pleasant to use.

per bottle Pineola Balsam, 25c. Sold by Druggists. ELY BROTHERS, 65 Warren St., New York.
