WEDNESDAY MARCH 24 1897

JULIAN BYRD — — — Manager.

The republicans have shown their love for the working people by placing the heaviest taxation in the new tariff bill on such necessities as sugar and clothing.

Czar Reed doesn't show any envy of King Hanna, however much he may feel of McKinley.

Perhaps Mr. McKinley's slowness in handing around the pie arises from a fear of over feeding his friends.

King Hanna's biography, in the Congressional Record, recalls the fact that he was appointed a Government Director of the Union Pacific Railroad by Grover Cleveland in 1885.

The democrats of the house paid Representative Bailey, of Texas, a high compliment when they selected him for their leader. Time will also show that they made no mistake.

If we mistake not Dr. Hunter had the republican caucus nomination for senator from Kentucky once before, and yet he failed to get elected senator. History has a habit of repeating itself.

We don't know whether Moody, the revivalist, has given up the reformation of New York as a bad job, but it is announced that he will go to Chicago next month.

The largest individual land owner in the United States died the other day, but it didn't take any more ground to make him a grave than it would to make one for a pauper.

Cuba hasn't been materially benefited by our change of administration, but the Spainards are reported to be a little more respectful in their treatment of Americans in Cuba.

Negotiations looking towards the annexation of Hawaii are said to have already been started with the McKinley administration.

Mr. McKinley has got congress together all right, but what he will get from congress is another story.

Wonder if Mr. Grover Cleveland isn't surprised to see the country wagging along without the assistance of his boosing.

It may be a conciliation to the Cubans to know that there are others who gain nothing by the change of administration in this country.

If Mr. Cleveland does write a biography, and tells all he knows, some people will certainly find it "hot stuff."

Ingalls, of Kans., didn't get back into the senate, but he reported the big prize fight for a newspaper syndicate.

Boss Platt has not allowed his going to the senate to cause him to lose his grip on the republican machine in New York, although other men who have gone to the senate have failed to maintain their prestige at home.

The wives of republican senators are already playing havoc with some of the plans of the McKinley administration and its friends. The friends of the late James G. Blaine can give pointers on the damage that snubbed women can do in politics.

Among the widely known democrats sitting in the present house, who were not in the late congress, are "Silver Dollar" Bland and "Champ" Clark of Mo., and "Watch-dog" Holman, of Ind. They are men whose influence will be felt, too.

Unofficial notice has been served upon this government that the foreign countries which consider themselves discriminated against by the new McKinley tariff bill intend to retaliate. Human nature is very nearly the same everywhere. It is all very nice to talk about turning the other cheek, but the average man hits back instead.

Many republicans who went to Washington have realized that there isn't enough pie to go around, and that only the fellows with extraordinary pulls can get any.

News Notes.

Perry Heath has taken the oath of office as first assistant postmaster general.

Jay Eaton won the professional bike race at San Francisco on the 20th in 2 10 45.

Miss Glaw of Chicago won the woman's 6 day bike race in Chicago, her score being 240 1/2 miles.

The senate will again amend the Indian bill by a provision to open the Uncompahgre reservation.

Postmaster General Gary will continue the old policy as to the distribution of the postoffice patronage.

It is understood that J. L. Bristow of Ottawa, Kan., has been selected as fourth postmaster general.

Rear Admiral Selfridge, commanding the United States European squadron, was received in audience by the pope Saturday.

NEW YORK WORLD.

The Twice-a-week Edition of the New York World has been converted into the Thrice-a-week. It furnishes 3 papers of 6 pages apiece, or eighteen pages every week, at the old price of One Dollar a year. This gives 156 paper a year for One Dollar and every paper has 6 pages eight columns wide or 48 columns in all. The Thrice-a-week World is not only much larger than any weekly or semi-weekly newspaper, but it furnishes the news with much greater frequency and promptness. In fact it combines all the crisp, fresh qualities of a daily with the attractive special features of a weekly.

Arrangements have been made by which we can furnish the paper and the Thrice-a-Week New York World both for $2.25 a year. A large advantage of this offer is that you get your own local paper and the Thrice-a-Week World at this special rate.
