N. BROWN & SONS,---The Leading Merchants

Burns, - - Oregon.

—Isaac Foster was seen on our streets Saturday.

—H. R. McClure is in from Anderson valley on a visit to his family.

—Win Gown, who has been at Salem for some time, arrived home last Friday.

—Emanuel Clark is in town a witness in the case of state vs Geo. Curtis.

—E. A. Stauffer and Jake Cary, of Crane creek, took in the sights of Burns this week.

—Justice Lewis, Sam Miller, B. D. McIntyre and Rev. A. Royse, have been on the sick list for the past few days.

—O. D. Rusk and E. P. Sylvester left for Idaho, on Friday's stage, where they will shear sheep for the next month or six weeks.

—At a meeting of County Judges in Portland recently it was decided not to pay state taxes for the present unless compelled to by the courts.

—This office has been kept busy of late doing job work. We have time to do more, so bring it in.

—Geo. Curtis was arraigned before Justice Lewis yesterday on a charge of trespass and plead not guilty. The trial is set for tomorrow, April 1.

—J. F. Mahon was here Friday and Saturday. Mr. Mahon witnessed the big fight at Carson and is of the opinion that if the same men went into the ring again, Corbett would be the winner.

—Ex-Congressman Binger Hermann of Oregon took the oath as commissioner of the general land office last Friday. By coincidence two ex-commissioners, Carter and Brudette, and both the Oregon representatives, Ellis and Tongue, the latter Hermann's successor in congress, were present at the installation.

—R. P. Marquis, of Grass Valley a former student of our fellow townsman Rev. A. Royse, has been in town for a few days. We understand Mr. Marquis is looking for a school and will probably remain in this county.

The Sumpter Valley railroad is making arrangements to build a road from Baker City to the Seven Devils mines. In the wake of the railroad, the erection of a 100 ton smelter is expected to follow, as the Seven Devils ore is the one thing needed for fluxing the ores of this section of the state. The information comes from the officers of the Sumpter Valley railway, and it is said that the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company is heartily co-operating in the movement. The attempt to build a road from Payette or Weiser is not regarded seriously.
