DIED.—At the home of her uncle, A. B. Matney, in Jackson county, Oregon, Miss Manda Maupin aged 19 years. The deceased lady was a daughter of Geo. Maupin of this place. Obituary will be published in our next issue.

—N. Brown & Sons' business is increasing. It has been doing so for years, when all were crying hard times. This year it is still increasing. Why? How is it done? These questions have been perplexing to many. It is easy answered. Honest dealings to all. Honest goods for the purchaser, and six teen ounces to the pound.

—The people of Burns were treated to an entertainment by the kindergarten last evening. We venture to say it was the most satisfactory ever given in our town, and Miss Hope, their teacher, cannot be too highly praised for the work she has done in that department. We cannot publish the program for lack of space, nor make special mention of any particular one, for all the children were well drilled, and performed their parts to perfection. Miss Hope expects to leave Burns in a few days and all regret that she could not be re-employed for next term.

ATTENTION—Parties intending to purchase goods will do well to call on Mason & London, as they offer bargains in all lines to make room for their new lines of Spring goods now on the way.

—Mason & London will have their Spring and Summer goods in now in about three weeks, and will carry a full and complete stock of the latest styles of boots and shoes, hosiery of all kinds, fancy prints, lawns and dress goods, gents furnishing goods, neck wear, neglige shirts, etc., etc. Give them a call, as it is no trouble to show goods even if you do not wish to purchase.

—We challenge competition in any line and make a speciality of mail orders. Why send away and get the same goods that you can get at home, and get better prices and material, besides knowing what you are getting. We are here to do the business, and if we do not carry anything that you want we will get it, and will convince you that we can and will do as well and better by you than you can by sending away for your goods.
